Unit description
This unit is about language teaching and learning and focuses on internal and external social factors which influence both curriculum and classroom practice. The focus of the unit moves from consideration of individuals in a teaching-learning context, through the classroom as a site of learning and generation of a unique discourse, to the influence and impact of broader social and political concerns on curriculum. Factors that bring about and impede change are examined and their impact evaluated across a spectrum of learning environments. The focus is on TESOL but teachers of other languages will also find this unit relevant to their professional practice.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify the social conditions inside and outside the classroom that define learning contexts and impact on learning, and link these parameters to constraints and opportunities that exist in different contexts.

ULO2: Develop a critical understanding of the range of approaches and methods used in TESOL, the principles underlying them and how, together with historical factors, they influence curriculum and syllabus design.

ULO3: Demonstrate understanding of the ways teachers develop beliefs about language learning and teaching and the effect these can have on lesson planning and delivery.

ULO4: Analyse and critically reflect on your own practice as a language teacher and beliefs about language learning.

ULO5: Apply relevant theoretical models to practice in teaching/curriculum design in a specific teaching context, and evaluate their effectiveness.

ULO6: Communicate to a professional audience advanced knowledge and understanding of classroom practice and curriculum design.

Social context of teaching: description and critical analysis

Assessment Type: Report

Indicative Time on Task: 30 hours

Due: Week 6

Weighting: 40%

Describe the features of the social context of teaching. Analyse and evaluate the effects one factor on teaching and learning, and examine how this influences the current classroom practice.

Length: 2000 words.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify the social conditions inside and outside the classroom that define learning contexts and impact on learning, and link these parameters to constraints and opportunities that exist in different contexts.
- Develop a critical understanding of the range of approaches and methods used in TESOL, the principles underlying them and how, together with historical factors, they influence curriculum and syllabus design.

- Demonstrate understanding of the ways teachers develop beliefs about language learning and teaching and the effect these can have on lesson planning and delivery.
- Analyse and critically reflect on your own practice as a language teacher and beliefs about language learning
- Apply relevant theoretical models to practice in teaching/curriculum design in a specific teaching context, and evaluate their effectiveness.
- Communicate to a professional audience advanced knowledge and understanding of classroom practice and curriculum design.

Case study
Assessment Type 1: Presentation
Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours
Due: Week 12
Weighting: 30%

Plan and present a case study on classroom discourse/curriculum innovation/teacher cognition in a specific teaching context and reflect on its implications. Presentations are scheduled to Weeks 12 and 13.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Identify the social conditions inside and outside the classroom that define learning contexts and impact on learning, and link these parameters to constraints and opportunities that exist in different contexts.
- Develop a critical understanding of the range of approaches and methods used in TESOL, the principles underlying them and how, together with historical factors, they influence curriculum and syllabus design.
- Demonstrate understanding of the ways teachers develop beliefs about language learning and teaching and the effect these can have on lesson planning and delivery.

- Communicate to a professional audience advanced knowledge and understanding of classroom practice and curriculum design.
Weekly quizzes

Assessment Type 1: Quiz/Test
Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours
Due: Throughout the semester
Weighting: 30%

Weekly quizzes in 10 weeks based on the reading assigned for that week and the seminar materials in that week. Question types include both closed and open ones.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Identify the social conditions inside and outside the classroom that define learning contexts and impact on learning, and link these parameters to constraints and opportunities that exist in different contexts.
- Develop a critical understanding of the range of approaches and methods used in TESOL, the principles underlying them and how, together with historical factors, they influence curriculum and syllabus design.
- Demonstrate understanding of the ways teachers develop beliefs about language learning and teaching and the effect these can have on lesson planning and delivery.
- Analyse and critically reflect on your own practice as a language teacher and beliefs about language learning.
- Apply relevant theoretical models to practice in teaching/curriculum design in a specific teaching context, and evaluate their effectiveness.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   - the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   - the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

The delivery of this unit is by on-campus sessions for internally enrolled students. The sessions are interactive seminars. Students are expected to have read the set readings, actively participate in class and online. Students are also expected to do independent research using academic sources.

Resources are available through the iLearn website for this unit. Technologies used include video, Echo360 and other online resources.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central. Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

- Academic Appeals Policy
- Academic Integrity Policy
- Academic Progression Policy
- Assessment Policy
- Fitness to Practice Procedure

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/admin/other-resources/student-conduct

Results

Results published on platform other than eStudent, (eg. iLearn, Coursera etc.) or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au or if you are a Global MBA student contact globalmba.support@mq.edu.au

Academic Integrity

At Macquarie, we believe academic integrity – honesty, respect, trust, responsibility, fairness and courage – is at the core of learning, teaching and research. We recognise that meeting the expectations required to complete your assessments can be challenging. So, we offer you a range of resources and services to help you reach your potential, including free online writing and maths support, academic skills development and wellbeing consultations.
All assessment tasks must be attempted in order to pass the unit.

Requesting an extension to assignment due date

On occasion, you may be in a situation when you aren't able to submit an assessment task on time. Extensions are only given in special circumstances, by completing a Special Consideration request. For more information on Special Consideration, see https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration

Late submission of assignments

If you haven’t been approved for an extension and you submit your assessment task late, penalties are applied. You should consult your unit convenor if you are in this position. Late submissions will receive a 5% per day penalty. If you submit the assessment task 10 days or more beyond the due date, without an approved extension, you will be awarded a maximum of 50% of the overall assessment marks. Weekends and public holidays are included.
