Unit description

This unit adopts a technical and practical emphasis, and incorporates theory, published research on management accounting technologies, and ethical dimensions of management accounting to inform how management accounting operates within an organisation's strategic control system. Using case studies students learn how to critically analyse, evaluate, and solve problems using management accounting technologies. Students learn how management accounting enables and hinders strategic control processes thus positioning students to enhance its role in accomplishing effective strategic control.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.

ULO2: Employ management accounting technologies, to identify, analyse and solve strategic control problems in real-world organisations.

ULO3: Propose and justify changes to the use of management accounting to enhance its role in the strategic control of an organisation.

ULO4: Critically examine, discuss and reflect on ethical issues and challenges relating to strategic control in organisations.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participatory Tasks	45%	No	Weekly Week 3 to Week 12
Case Study / Case Analysis	30%	No	Week 9, see iLearn for details
Online Final Exam	25%	No	University examination period

Participatory Tasks

Assessment Type 1: Participatory task Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours

Due: Weekly Week 3 to Week 12

Weighting: 45%

Participatory Tasks requires students to participate in a range of activities. The purpose of this assessment is for students to show, with evidence, that they are working progressively and continuously throughout the session, to achieve the unit's learning outcomes and to monitor their own progress in this unit. Participatory tasks, that are weight-averaged include: Seminar Participation (15%): In-class discussions, reflective activities, and online discussion forums. Other Seminar Activities (30%): Case analysis, online workshops and lessons, and presentations.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.
- Employ management accounting technologies, to identify, analyse and solve strategic control problems in real-world organisations.
- Propose and justify changes to the use of management accounting to enhance its role in the strategic control of an organisation.

Case Study / Case Analysis

Assessment Type 1: Case study/analysis Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours

Due: Week 9, see iLearn for details

Weighting: 30%

The case study requires students to critically assess and discuss ethical dilemmas and construct solutions to problems using relevant ethical principles and ideas, supported by a real-world case scenario. The purpose of this assessment is to introduce students to the ethical dimensions of management accounting as it relates to strategic control and develop their ethical reasoning skills. For this case study assessment, students will complete: Two (2) graded online discussion forums in groups focused on ethical dilemmas, ethical reasoning, and evaluating feasible ethical actions, using a real-world case scenario. Three (3) individual multiple-choice, open-book, online quizzes focused on ethical principles and frameworks, applicable to real-world scenarios. Students work in groups and individually online on the case study.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.
- Critically examine, discuss and reflect on ethical issues and challenges relating to strategic control in organisations.

Online Final Exam

Assessment Type 1: Examination Indicative Time on Task 2: 16 hours

Due: University examination period

Weighting: 25%

A two-hour online open book final exam will be held during the University Examination period.

On successful completion you will be able to:

 Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.

- ¹ If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
 - the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
