<td>This unit is offered on a pass/fail basis. This unit is centred on TESOL classroom practice. It is a practical application of the content of APPL8200, APPL6000 and APPL6010. It involves learners completing classroom observation tasks, supervised practice teaching, lesson and materials preparation, reflective teaching activities, and preparation of a teaching portfolio. The majority of time is spent on site at a language teaching institution.</td>

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Critically evaluate applications of TESOL pedagogy, including language teaching methods and approaches, use of materials, design of learning tasks and of whole lessons through classroom observations
- ULO2: Apply a range of appropriate language teaching strategies suitable for a diverse learner group
- ULO3: Plan and implement appropriate language learning activities and lessons that support a diverse learner group
ULO4: Demonstrate effective communication and ethical professional practice

ULO5: Critically reflect on your teaching practice, including your role in the learning and teaching processes, to identify elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching and learning

Preparation Activity

Assessment Type 1: Non-academic writing
Indicative Time on Task 2: 10 hours
Due: Week 7
Weighting: 20%

These are a series of tasks to be completed on iLearn from Week 1 to Week 7. They require engagement with assigned readings, analysis, evaluation, reflection and personalization of the concepts in focus and application to their own teaching context.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically evaluate applications of TESOL pedagogy, including language teaching methods and approaches, use of materials, design of learning tasks and of whole lessons through classroom observations
- Apply a range of appropriate language teaching strategies suitable for a diverse learner group
- Plan and implement appropriate language learning activities and lessons that support a diverse learner group
- Demonstrate effective communication and ethical professional practice
- Critically reflect on your teaching practice, including your role in the learning and teaching processes, to identify elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching and learning

Observation Tasks 1-8

Assessment Type 1: Reflective Writing
Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours
Due: Week 10 or otherwise arranged with the Unit Convenor
Weighting: 30%

Observation Tasks fully completed with diagrams, notes taken during observations, questions answered and reflections included.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically evaluate applications of TESOL pedagogy, including language teaching methods and approaches, use of materials, design of learning tasks and of whole lessons through classroom observations
- Apply a range of appropriate language teaching strategies suitable for a diverse learner group
- Demonstrate effective communication and ethical professional practice
- Critically reflect on your teaching practice, including your role in the learning and teaching processes, to identify elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching and learning

Portfolio

Assessment Type 1: Portfolio
Indicative Time on Task 2: 25 hours
Due: Week 10 or otherwise arranged with the Unit Convenor
Weighting: 50%

The portfolio is a complete record of the teacher's practicum experiences and includes practicum preparation tasks, fully completed observation tasks, reports on practice teaching sessions, a practice teaching journal, lesson plans and materials, and other artefacts from the practicum.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Critically evaluate applications of TESOL pedagogy, including language teaching methods and approaches, use of materials, design of learning tasks and of whole
lessons through classroom observations
• Apply a range of appropriate language teaching strategies suitable for a diverse learner group
• Plan and implement appropriate language learning activities and lessons that support a diverse learner group
• Demonstrate effective communication and ethical professional practice
• Critically reflect on your teaching practice, including your role in the learning and teaching processes, to identify elements that enabled and inhibited successful teaching and learning

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   • the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   • the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources
The initial part of the unit is delivered fully online via iLearn and involves students reading, completing tasks, and completing practicum preparation tasks. These are included in the practicum portfolio and may also be discussed online with other students completing their practicum. Optional group meetings are offered via Zoom throughout the semester.

The remainder of the unit is carried out on placement at an approved school or college. Students also work from home to complete their portfolio.

Student Code of Conduct

Macquarie University students have a responsibility to be familiar with the Student Code of Conduct: https://students.mq.edu.au/admin/other-resources/student-conduct

Results

Results published on platform other than eStudent, (eg. iLearn, Coursera etc.) or released directly by your Unit Convenor, are not confirmed as they are subject to final approval by the University. Once approved, final results will be sent to your student email address and will be made available in eStudent. For more information visit ask.mq.edu.au or if you are a Global MBA student contact globalmba.support@mq.edu.au

Academic Integrity

At Macquarie, we believe academic integrity – honesty, respect, trust, responsibility, fairness and courage – is at the core of learning, teaching and research. We recognise that meeting the expectations required to complete your assessments can be challenging. So, we offer you a range of resources and services to help you reach your potential, including free online writing and maths support, academic skills development and wellbeing consultations.

All assessment tasks must be attempted in order to pass the unit. The placement has to be successfully completed to be able to pass the unit.

Requesting an extension to assignment due date

On occasion, you may be in a situation when you aren’t able to submit an assessment task on time. Extensions are only given in special circumstances, by completing a Special Consideration request. For more information on Special Consideration, see https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/special-consideration

Late submission of assignments

This should be discussed with the Unit Convenor.
