Delivery and Resources

Research Supervisor. To support your learning and research activities in this unit, your unit convenor will be your first point of contact. Your unit convenor will also allocate (with your input) a member of the Department of History and Archaeology with whom you can meet to discuss your progress in relation to your Ancient History or Archaeology research. You should identify your preferred staff member(s) (see here for a list of departmental academic staff) when submitting your Research Paper Topic proposal. Please note that not all staff members may be available for research supervision this session and there is a limit on the number of students that may be allocated to each staff member. Details on finding, contacting and nominating your supervisor are on the unit's iLearn page.

Unit Schedule

Week 1: Choosing a Research Topic/Supervisor Week 4: Annotated Bibliography and Proposed Research Topic (Assessment 1) Week 7: Research Plan (Assessment 2) Week 13: Research Essay (Assessment 3)
