Unit description
This unit applies the tools of microeconomic theory to the study of firm behaviour in imperfectly competitive markets. The unit begins with a review of neoclassical theory of the firm. This is followed by a review of monopoly behaviour, with extension to models of horizontal and vertical product differentiation. Oligopoly models (including Cournot, Stackelberg and Bertrand) are reviewed and developed beyond those learned in foundation units. Models of anti-competitive behaviour are then introduced as they relate to predatory behaviour and collusion. Finally, non-price models of competition related to advertising, R&D, and patent races are examined. Beyond the theoretical topics studied in the unit, students will have the opportunity to apply their knowledge to a current industry study of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Effectively communicate theories and knowledge of industrial organisation in technical and non-technical language.
ULO2: Analyse the relevance of industrial organisation to economic life.
ULO3: Evaluate real-world applications of economic theory relevant to efficiency and equity considerations, from a broad ethical perspective.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
