Unit description

As a foundational unit, this unit invites students to explore the practice of education in Australia today through the lens of what and how children and young people are learning and experiencing in contemporary early childhood, primary and secondary school settings. Concepts and perspectives drawn from sociology and history, and also from philosophy, cultural studies, politics and economics, will support your reflections on your own schooling, your direct observations on contemporary practices in education, and in discerning the implications they hold for your future development as a teacher. The concept of "the curriculum" and its many dimensions are explored as an important unifying theme throughout the unit as we investigate how teachers and school leaders seek to be responsive to students, colleagues, parents and communities in the context of the society schools serve. A wide range of contemporary issues are considered relating to families, gender, equity, indigeneity, media, technology and community. Key moments in the history of Australian education are also identified.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

The following descriptive criteria are included for your information.

Descriptive Criteria for awarding grades in the unit

In order to meet the unit outcomes and successfully pass this unit, students must make a genuine attempt at all assessment tasks. Where any submitted assessment task is considered to be unsatisfactory in this regard, the highest possible final grade that can be awarded for the unit will be 45.

The Making of 'YOU'

Assessment Type ¹: Essay
 Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours
 Due: 23:55 03/04/2023
 Weighting: 40%

Students analyse their own schooling experience (or one advertised by a generic school website) from a sociological perspective, including school motto, rules, rewards and punishments, uniforms, subject choices, values or lessons etc. They consider the types of students and ways of being that were encouraged and discouraged and the effects this may have on different types of students' inclusion and engagement. Students analyse how their social and development characteristics impacted and were impacted by school teaching and learning approaches. They use readings from the first five modules to reflect on the strategies' effectiveness (1500 words).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop insights into the ways in which contemporary educational practice has been shaped, and continues to be shaped, by socio-cultural and historical factors.
- Describe the structures and concepts that underpin contemporary policy and practice in Australian educational institutions.
- Apply initial academic research skills through searching relevant databases and other non-academic sources to read for purpose and investigate contemporary issues in Australian educational practice.

Engagement: Lead & Follow

Assessment Type ¹: Presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: Weeks 3-12

Weighting: 60%

There are two components (1a and 1b) in the first assessment task designed to both encourage and assess the quality of ongoing student engagement: tutorial leadership (30%/ 30 marks) and ongoing participation in tutorial discussions (30%/ 30 marks). Both components are assessed by the tutor in either face-to-face class time utilising a purpose-designed rubric with scope for student peer assessment providing further input. 1a) Students, in groups of no more than three, will plan and facilitate an interactive class discussion to address one or more of the key questions posed for the week's module and elaborated on in the previous week's lectures. 1b) An individual grade will also be awarded for contributions to face-to-face or online tutorial group discussions throughout the semester that demonstrate an ongoing engagement with key issues raised and readings.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Develop insights into the ways in which contemporary educational practice has been shaped, and continues to be shaped, by socio-cultural and historical factors.
- Describe the structures and concepts that underpin contemporary policy and practice in Australian educational institutions.
- Apply initial academic research skills through searching relevant databases and other non-academic sources to read for purpose and investigate contemporary issues in Australian educational practice.
- Work collaboratively and ethically with others.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment

School of Education Procedures

In addition, the following policies and procedures of the School of Education are applicable in this unit.

Attendance for undergraduate units

See the university timetable for information about when classes begin in this unit. <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2023/>

Activities completed during weekly tutorials (internal) or on campus days (external) are essential for building the core knowledge and/or skills required to demonstrate the learning outcomes of this unit [and to meet the AITSL Graduate Teacher Standards and/or ACECQA requirements]. Attendance at all tutorials or on campus days is expected and the roll will be taken. Make up tasks may be given if attendance is missed to ensure all content is covered to meet accreditation requirements.

Students are required to attend the tutorial in which they are enrolled. Any changes to tutorial enrolments must be completed officially through e-student. Please do not contact the unit convenor requesting a change.

Electronic Communication

It is the student's responsibility to check all electronic communication on a regular weekly basis. Communication may occur via:

- Official MQ Student Email Address
- The Dialogue function on iLearn
- Other iLearn communication functions

Infrequent Attendance Students

Information about the dates if the on-campus sessions can be found in the university timetable. <https://timetables.mq.edu.au/2023/>

- The on-campus sessions are essential to student engagement and learning and attendance on all days is expected. Failure to attend or to have an approved Special Consideration may result in a Fail grade for the unit. Please see attendance requirements in this unit guide.
- Prior to the on-campus sessions, you should have read the prescribed readings and listened to the lectures. Summarise the main points and make a note of the key terms and definitions. Prepare any discussion questions of your own that you wish to share.
- Please make effective use of the online component of the unit and access iLearn regularly. Keep up to date with listening to the lectures on a weekly basis.
- Further specific details and any updates about times and locations will be posted on iLearn as an Announcement during first half of the semester.

5Rs Framework

The 5Rs Framework, developed by the School of Education at Macquarie University, is embedded throughout your teacher education course. Your use of the 5Rs Framework will help you develop the capabilities that will make your teaching career sustainable and fulfilling. In this unit, you will learn using the 5Rs framework in the following important ways:

- Resilient: EDST1000 builds students' resilience through group work and face to face presentations to peers.
- Reflexive: EDST1000 includes an essay in which students reflect on how their beliefs were constructed via their personal schooling experiences. Lecture/ tutorial Q&A encourage reflection on a regular basis.
- Responsive: EDST1000 requires student engagement in weekly activities in their tutorial engagement assessment (1b). Pro-active participation and responsiveness to the weekly stimuli is required and marked.

- Research engaged: EDST1000 engages students with sociology of education research in the lectures through discussion of statistics and visual data for example, and through their reporting on research findings in Tasks 1 (tutorial leadership & participation), and 2 (essay).
