Unit description

This unit is an educational psychology unit building on key understandings developed in either EDUC1050 or EDUC1070. The unit focuses on issues of learning and development, particularly as they relate to school-aged children and adolescents. The primary emphasis is on those aspects of cognition and social-cognition that are most relevant to educational practice, including attention, memory, metacognition, motivation, emotional development, and understanding of self. The unit is designed primarily for pre-service teachers, but other interested students who meet the prerequisites are also welcome.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain how information is learned and generate implications for classroom practice.

ULO3: Synthesise knowledge about children's cognitive and socio-cognitive development in order to identify and solve specific educational case study problems.

ULO4: Access appropriate psychological or educational literature, including peerreviewed journal articles, using the library databases ERIC and PsycINFO.

University policy on grading

Criteria for awarding grades for assessment tasks

Assignments will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the University's Grading Policy. For Professional Experience units the PE Report is marked as satisfactory or unsatisfactory and the Teaching Performance Assessment (in final PE units) is marked as not meets, meets or exceeds. The following descriptive criteria are included for your information.

Descriptive Criteria for awarding grades in the unit

In order to meet the unit outcomes and successfully pass this unit, students must make a genuine attempt at all assessment tasks. Where any submitted assessment task is considered to be unsatisfactory in this regard, the highest possible final grade that can be awarded for the unit will be 45.

Students completing a single Education degree (such as the BTeach/MTeach) are advised to seek academic advice.

5Rs Framework

5Rs Framework

The 5Rs Framework, developed by the School of Education at Macquarie University, is embedded throughout your teacher education course. Your use of the 5Rs Framework will help you develop the capabilities that will make your teaching career sustainable and fulfilling.

In this unit, you will learn using the 5Rs framework in the following important ways:

- Resilience: This unit includes Tutorial activities that focus on promoting student well-being and developing teacher resilience

- Reflexive: Each Tutorial will involve reflections on the connection between content and practice
- Responsive: All Assessments require the ability to identify the implications of research for teaching and how teachers can use research to be more responsive to student needs.
- Ready to learn. Students will learn the foundational and advanced knowledge in the cognitive and social factors of learning and development. This knowledge forms a basis for future learning on how to best support students and their learning. Students are encouraged to see this as a starting point, not an end point.
- Research Engaged: The major assignment involves conducting a research project and writing a research report. There are related Tutorial activities about the importance of research to teaching.
