Unit description
This unit teaches students to effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences in written, oral and visual forms. It explores the critical link between the creation of disciplinary knowledge and the dissemination of that knowledge to benefit human societies. The unit emphasises the importance of maintaining standards of academic integrity in publication and communication. It also specifically addresses the steps involved in producing a high-quality research thesis.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
ULO2: Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills
ULO3: Provide constructive feedback to others
ULO4: Evaluate current issues and debates in research ethics and integrity
General Assessment Information

Engagement – please read, as this is very important

As a BPhil / MRes Yr 1 student you are part of the Faculty of Science and Engineering research community. You are expected to actively participate in the unit activities by: asking questions, voicing your opinions, participating in discussions, providing constructive feedback to your peers, and proactively working to find your place in our diverse research community. You are expected to contribute to a supportive and respectful dialogue. Disrespectful, offensive, belittling or exclusionary behaviour will not be tolerated (https://policies.mq.edu.au/document/view.php?id=55).

Academic Honesty

Academic integrity is fundamental to research. Presenting another person's work as your own is a serious breach of the University’s rules and carries significant penalties. The University’s Academic Honesty Policy can be found at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/policy.html

In this unit, all written work will be checked for plagiarism using Turnitin. Penalties for plagiarism may include a zero mark for the assignment or in more extreme cases, failure of the unit. Plagiarism will be noted on your academic record. Full details of penalties can be found at http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/academic_honesty/schedule_penalties.html

Individual assessments

Each assessment has been designed to be as authentic to as possible. Marking criteria / guidance for each assessment are provided via iLearn. Due to the number of students the oral presentations will be split over weeks 12 and 13, but all student AV is due prior to the workshop in week 12 (even if you are not presenting until week 13). Both poster and oral presentations require an abstract to be submitted 3 weeks prior to the presentation (see iLearn and linked marking criteria for extra details). All of your assessments will be based in your own disciplinary area, but each presentation must cover a distinct topic.

Due dates and assessment topics

All assessments are due prior to the weekly scheduled workshop for the week indicated in the unit guide. Any student who is unable to meet a deadline should contact the unit convenor prior to the deadline to (possibly) avoid late penalties.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Students enrolled in session based units with written assessments will have the following university standard late penalty applied. Please see https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/assessments for more information. Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11:55 pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern. For any late submission of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Assessments where Late Submissions will be accepted

In this unit, late submissions will accepted as follows:

- The summary paragraph, general audience writing piece and integrity reflection are subject to the standard late submission penalty. The abstract portion of the oral and poster presentations are also subject to the standard late submission penalty.
- Oral and poster presentations must be given during the allocated time slots to the audience of your peers and markers, so late presentations will not be allowed unless a special consideration is granted. Providing peer feedback on the oral and poster presentations requires you to be present at the allocated time slots, so late feedback will not be allowed unless a special consideration is granted.
- See marking guidance on iLearn or consult the convenor for additional information.

Due: Weekly throughout the session
Weighting: 10%

You must complete all of the assigned pre-workshop and in-workshop activities.
On successful completion you will be able to:

- Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills
- Provide constructive feedback to others
- Evaluate current issues and debates in research ethics and integrity

Summary
Assessment Type 1: Professional writing
Indicative Time on Task 2: 7 hours
Due: Week 3
Weighting: 10%

You will write a summary of a current research topic in your discipline suitable for a general audience (analogous to the summary included in ARC grants).

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills

Integrity reflection
Assessment Type 1: Reflective Writing
Indicative Time on Task 2: 7 hours
Due: Week 5 or 9, as agreed.
Weighting: 11%
This is a hurdle assessment task (see assessment policy for more information on hurdle assessment tasks)

You will write a short reflection on a current topic in integrity, ethics and/or inclusion relevant to your discipline.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
• Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills
• Evaluate current issues and debates in research ethics and integrity

Poster presentation
Assessment Type 1: Poster
Indicative Time on Task 2: 21 hours
Due: Week 4 & 7
Weighting: 23%

You will prepare and present a research poster to a professional standard aimed at an audience of your peers, and you will provide constructive feedback on the posters of others.

On successful completion you will be able to:
• Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences

Assessment Type 1: Non-academic writing
Indicative Time on Task 2: 21 hours
Due: Week 10
Weighting: 23%

You will write a piece for a general audience (analogous to the Conversation) on a current research topic in your discipline.

On successful completion you will be able to:
• Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
• Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills

Oral presentation
Assessment Type 1: Presentation
Indicative Time on Task 2: 21 hours
Due: Week 9 & 12/13
Weighting: 23%

You will deliver an oral presentation on a current research topic in your discipline aimed at an audience of your peers, and you will provide constructive feedback on the presentations of others.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Effectively communicate research concepts and findings to specialist and non-specialist audiences
- Demonstrate advanced writing and presentation skills
- Provide constructive feedback to others

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   - the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   - the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

You are encouraged to attend class in person if at all possible. If you cannot attend in person, you are still required to attend classes during the scheduled time online (see iLearn for links). Please bring a laptop or tablet to each workshop to facilitate your participation in workshop activities.

Remote / online / off-shore students: If you are not based in the greater Sydney area you must email the convenor as soon as possible to discuss study options. Remote / online engagement is possible, but with greater notice comes more time to plan our options.

COVID Information and on-campus classes: On-campus teaching is the default mode of delivery. Masks and social distancing are encouraged wherever possible.

Students are requested to minimise the risk of spreading COVID to themselves and others in accordance with the university and NSW Health guidelines: https://www.mq.edu.au/about/coronavirus-faqs and https://www.nsw.gov.au/covid-19/stay-safe. Students who feel unwell due to any illness are requested to participate in workshops using the online option rather than attend in person (see iLearn for links). Any further requirements or changes to the unit in relation to COVID will be communicated to students via iLearn.
Unit Schedule

Weeks 7, 12 & 13 are dedicated to student presentations. The other weeks are typically 2 x 1.5 hr sessions with half or more of those sessions spend engaged in participatory activities.

See detailed schedule on iLearn.
