Unit description
This unit evaluates the ways that gender, race, class, sexuality and other intersecting identities are shaped in and by the cultural and social institutions that organise and frame contemporary life. Through various topics including the body, surveillance, sexuality, labour, reproduction, and religion, the unit examines how ideas and ideals of gender and other intersecting identities are central to the operation and distribution of power. Assignments encourage the development of research and writing skills including posing questions, and evaluating and sourcing evidence.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Critically examine the operations of gender, identity and power in contemporary life
ULO2: Appraise theories that have been used, challenged, and critically extended in Gender Studies
ULO3: Interpret the relationship between contemporary life and theories of gender and power and apply analyses outside the classroom
ULO4: Demonstrate skills in summarising texts, analysing sources, and writing research essays. These skills will in turn support the analysis, evaluation of, and engagement with a range of texts

ULO5: Synthesise ideas through discussion with peers

General Assessment Information

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

Detailed Assessment Guidelines explaining the requirements for each assignment are available on the GEND1020 iLearn page in the Assessment Resources section. You must read these guidelines in order to successfully complete each task.

All essays are to be submitted electronically through Turnitin on the GEND1020 iLearn page.

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of ‘0’ (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl. essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Please speak to your tutor as early as possible if you are experiencing any difficulties in meeting deadlines in this unit.

RELEVANT POLICY

Please be aware of the following policies in regard to assignments:

• Academic Integrity Policy: https://staff.mq.edu.au/work/strategy-planning-and-governance/university-policies-and-procedures/policies/academic-integrity. The university takes plagiarism very seriously and there are penalties for using other people’s work as your own. This includes directly quoting other people’s work without quotation marks and/or acknowledgement. Please check this unit’s iLearn site for resources on how to cite your sources properly and avoid plagiarism.

Changes from Previous Offering

Introduction of a new authentic assessment task (Essay Plan) to better support students in planning and writing their Research Essay. Students will self-select the due date of this assignment from a 3-week window that will correspond with delivery of feedback (see below).

Number of weekly tutorials have been reduced to allow for verbal feedback on the Essay Plan to be delivered to students through individual, face-to face consultations with tutors. Consultations will be scheduled to take place during wk10/wk11/wk12. Students will be able to revise their essay approach and structure before submission of their Research Essay.
