Unit description
This unit examines the principles of civil and criminal procedure in New South Wales. The unit canvasses general principles of civil procedure, such as pre-trial procedures, the nature of adversarial disputation, ethics of practice and a critical evaluation of the administration of justice, as well as select topics in criminal procedure, such as classification of offences, bail and sentencing.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO2: Display elementary legal advocacy skills
ULO1: Explain and apply the principles and stages of civil and criminal procedure
ULO3: Apply statutory interpretation to problems of civil and criminal procedural law
ULO4: Communicate an integrated body of procedural law knowledge both orally and in writing
ULO5: Analyse civil and criminal procedural law in its historical, social and legal context
General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/ exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
