Unit description

The unit introduces students to the principal areas of law in Australia which aim to preserve competition in the economy and to ensure consumer protection. Attention will focus on the competition law provisions in the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 and their theoretical underpinnings. Topics include cartels; anticompetitive agreements and concerted practices; misuse of market power; mergers; warranties and guarantees; misleading or deceptive conduct; unconscionable conduct and unfair contract terms; remedies and enforcement of both consumer and competition law.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Understand the economic concepts used in competition law to articulate the effects of anticompetitive practices.

ULO2: Consolidate the development of competition law in Australia and various parts of the world and examine the objective(s) of competition law in the economy.

ULO3: Consider the powers of the courts, regulatory bodies, and private individuals to distinguish between different enforcement methods in competition and consumer law.

ULO4: Apply the Competition and Consumer Act, case law, and soft law to solve problems in competition and consumer law.

General Assessment Information

QUIZZ (25%)

The quiz will be open at 9am, Monday 27 March 2023 (Week 6) and closed at 5pm, Monday 3 April 2023 (Week 7).

The quiz consists of 25 multiple choice questions. Each multiple choice question is worth 1 mark.

Topics for each quiz and the amount of time given to complete each quiz will be provided in a separate document on iLearn. There is no need for research for the quiz. All quiz questions are based on information in the prescribed textbook.

HYPOTHETICAL PROBLEM QUESTIONS (50%)

There will be two hypothetical problem questions worth 25% each.

More details will be provided on iLearn.

There is no need for research for the hypothetical problem questions. Both questions will be based on information in the prescribed textbook.

FINAL EXAM (TIME LIMITED) (25%)

There will be one hypothetical problem question worth 25%. More details will be provided on iLearn.

There is no need for research for the final exam. The question will be based on information provided on iLearn and the prescribed text.

Late Submission

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – 5 marks out of 100 credit will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted seven days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline.
