Unit description

Digital developments and emerging technologies present the law with a myriad of different challenges. This unit analyses the legal issues raised by networked digital technologies. Topics covered include establishing the country which has jurisdiction to hear a multinational internet dispute, the nature of copyright, patent and trademark protection for technological innovations, the governance of domain names, the protection of digital privacy, internet content control, social media governance, cybercrime and cyber security law. In each case, both existing legal frameworks and evolving law reform discourse are analysed and critiqued.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe the fundamental principles of information technology law and articulate the specific rules of information technology law derived from legislation and case law.

ULO2: Critically analyse issues in information technology law and synthesise legal scholarship from both national and international sources

ULO3: Analyse and contribute to policy debates and law reform discourse as applied to new and emerging technologies.

General Assessment Information

Class participation

Duration: Tutorials 1-12

Weighting: 20%

The tutorials are designed to extend the comprehensive and broad overview of technology law principles provided in the lectures by creating an opportunity for the in-depth consideration of selected specific issues. The tutorial discussion will be prompted by the consideration of scholarly articles, relevant cases, reform reports and the solving of hypothetical problem questions.

Tutorial preparation - Students are expected to listen to lectures on Echo on iLearn, complete the required readings (both the prescribed chapter of the textbook and the prescribed journal article reading(s)) and come ready to discuss the questions outlined in the Tutorial Discussion Questions.

Where can I find the tutorial questions? - The tutorial questions for each tutorial are found in the LAWS 5029 iLearn site, arranged under relevant weeks.

Where can I find the tutorial readings? The Tutorial Readings can be found on Leganto on iLearn, arranged under relevant weeks.

What do I do if I miss a tutorial?

If you miss one tutorial, please do not lodge an online Ask request. Instead, see your tutor at the start or end of class with relevant documentation. Please do not email your tutor or convenor.

If you miss one or more consecutive tutorials, please lodge an Ask Special Consideration application online at ask.mq.edu.au.

Moderation

Class participation will be assessed on both the quality and regularity of participation. Class participation will be assessed on the following criteria:

- Ability to critically discuss the material - the student is able to demonstrate reading and engagement with the reading materials and lectures for each week. This will be demonstrated by ability to answer relevant questions, responding to and participating effectively in class debates, and by asking questions to clarify anything not understood.
- Oral expression - the student is able to verbally express their ideas about the materials in a clear, coherent, and concise manner;
- Engaging with other students - the student engages with others in the class, displaying respect for others' opinions, active listening, constructive feedback and dialogue;

- Further detail is provided in the Participation Rubric on the LAWS 5029 ilearn site.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Apply the law to hypothetical fact situations through analogising and distinguishing.
- Provide legal advice through properly identifying legal issue(s), applying the relevant law to the identified issues, and accurately assessing the likely outcome.
- Develop skills for designing new laws and for reforming existing laws by examining policy debates and law reform discourse as applied to new or emerging technologies areas.
- Present, articulate, and defend through oral legal reasoning responses to diverse questions within information technology law.

Research Assignment

Due date: Thursday 6 April, 11.55pm (Week 7)

Weighting: 40%

2023 Research Assignment Question and Turnitin Icon

* Please see iLearn website under the banner of 'Assessment'. Then see 'Research Assignment' and then '2023 Research Assignment Question and Submission Turnitin icon'.

The Question will be available in Week 1 of semester.

Notes

Independent legal research: Please note that responding to this assignment question will require independent legal research that goes beyond the prescribed materials provided in lectures, tutorials and readings.

Word limit = 2,000 words, not including footnotes and bibliography. Footnotes need to be confined to citations. Citations should be in compliance with the Australian Guide to Legal Citation.

Submission method: All papers have to be submitted via Turnitin on the LAWS 5029 ilearn. Please ensure that you are wholly happy with your paper before submitting. The system does not allow for automatic re-submission.

Marking Rubric for Research Assignment: Please see LAWS 5029 ilearn page.

Moderation: The markers and convenor have a series of meeting to moderate the papers. The markers and convenor then undertake a process of blind marking of 10% of papers to establish an accurate and equitable marking standard. All Fail papers are double marked by the convenor.

Late Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, (a) a penalty for lateness will apply – five (5) marks out of 100 will be deducted per day for assignments submitted after the due date – and (b) no assignment will be accepted more than seven (7) days (incl. weekends) after the original submission deadline. No late submissions will be accepted for timed assessments – e.g. quizzes, online tests.

Other relevant information

Please note that plagiarism detection software is used in this unit.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Undertake in-depth research of critical issues in information technology law utilising scholarly legal publications from both national and international sources.

Final Time-Limited Assessment

Due: Monday 5 June, 10am-1pm (Week 14)

Weighting: 40%

Content

The Final Time-Limited Assessment will consist of two questions potentially covering all the material covered in the unit. Each question is worth 20%. The assessment will consist of either: (a) one essay question and one problem solving questions; or (b) two essay questions.

Word length

A maximum word length of 1,200 applies to each answer. This amounts to a total of 2,400 words for the two answers.

Duration

3 Hours

Rubric for Final Assessment: The Rubric for the Final Assessment is available on ilearn.

Moderation

The markers and convenor have a series of meeting to moderate the papers. the markers and convenor undertake a process of blind marking of 10% of papers to establish an accurate and equitable marking standard. The rubric used in marking is available on ilearn. All Fail papers are double marked by the convenor.

Application for an extension

All applications for Special Consideration need to be made electronically via ask.mq.edu.au and should be accompanied by supporting documentation.

Please do not email to request an extension or email to seek the outcome of a lodge application via email. No information can be provide via email, all information will be provided via the Ask system.

The Late Submission Penalty Policy will not apply to this assessment task as this is a timed assessment task.

Changes from Previous Offering

The final timed assessment task will be 3 hours (not 7 hours as in previous years).

Changes since First Published

Date	Description
07/02/2023	The due date for the Research Assignment appears multiple times in the Unit Guide. All but one of these references stated the due date to be '6 April 2023'. There was an error in the Contents section, and this has now been fixed and also changed to '6 April 2023'.
