Unit description

This unit studies the nature, formation and management of the modern corporation. It examines the consequences of the adoption of corporate form including the separation of legal personality between the company and its shareholders and the impact of limited liability. The extensive common law and statutory regulatory regime applicable to directors and other company officers in the management of the company is surveyed as is the important role of shareholders' rights in governing this entity. The examination of the corporation is undertaken in the context of globalisation where the proliferation of corporate governance codes is increasing.

General Assessment Information

Participatory Tasks (20%) - weekly and ongoing

These assessment tasks involve a series of activities including legal problem solving, discussions and debates that draw on students' understanding of the lectures and required readings.

- Class participation is based on engagement in tutorials and involves evidence of preparation for, participation in, and contribution to the tutorial. This is achieved by asking relevant questions and responding to tutor and student questions intelligently during tutorials to demonstrate understanding of relevant content each week.
- To achieve full marks you should prepare answers to the tutorial questions in advance.
- Tutors may also implement an "on call" model where students are required to present their tutorial question answer/s. This will form part of the participation grade, but the full grade will only be secured by consistent engagement across the whole semester.
- Attendance DOES NOT EQUAL participation.
- Students are expected to have completed all the assigned readings and all lecture materials in advance of tutorial attendance.
- Please note that students are required to attend their registered tutorial only.

Written Client Advice (Total-40%)

This assessment task requires students to apply knowledge of company law to provide two draft written client advice as follows:

- Written Client Advice No. 2 (20%) - opens 25/9/23 and due 8/10/23 at 11.55pm

This assessment task involves a time limited take-home exam (3hrs) testing student's understanding of company law.

General Assessment Information

- Turnitin plagiarism detection software is used to check all written assessments.
- Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment.
- Marking of all assessments is moderated through the use of detailed marking rubrics.
- All fail papers will be double marked.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.
