Unit description
Sales is an important function in any commercial organisation. Within organisations, salespeople play a crucial role in aligning their organisation's offerings with customers' needs, and in maximising value creation for both the customer and the selling firm. Moreover, to keep up with today's empowered buyers in both B2B and B2C contexts, salespeople need to personalise the entire sales experience to meet the buyer's wants. This unit develops students' knowledge of theories and concepts underpinning the planning and operationalisation of a firm’s sales. It also focuses on developing students' knowledge of personal selling, addressing the critical analysis and application of sales tactics. Students will develop communication skills necessary for successful sales.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Evaluate sales concepts on theoretical grounds.
ULO2: Critically analyse sales techniques and recommend actionable solutions to improve sales performance.
ULO3: Develop a sales pitch and professionally communicate it in either a B2B or B2C
General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘O’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
