Unit description

This unit examines the practice of photography across diverse cultural contexts and media platforms. It will introduce critical debates about the practice of photography and a number of key themes in the history of photography. The unit will consider a range of genres, texts and practices including snapshots and online photo sharing, family albums, photography as art and photojournalism. The unit will include the following topics: street photography and ethics; the photograph as evidence and instrument of organisation; domestic photography and amateurism; photography and otherness; and the place of photography in contemporary digital media cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.

ULO2: distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.

ULO3: analyse and critically evaluate photographs according to themes, genres, and forms.

ULO4: communicate narratives and ideas through the combination of photographs and text

ULO5: evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

General Assessment Information

*Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.

Online reflections

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Week 2-12 Mondays 23:55 Final reflection 23:55 01/06/2023

Weighting: 25%

Each week students will be asked to write a short reflection responding to a prompt/question related to the weekly topic and readings, and post it to iLearn ahead of the tutorial. At the end of the semester students will write a final reflection outlining how their understanding of photography has been developed or shaped by readings, photographs or photographers discussed in the unit. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.
- analyse and critically evaluate photographs according to themes, genres, and forms.
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

Online quizzes

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Quiz 1: 23:55 26/03/2023 Quiz 2: 23:55 28/05/2023

Weighting: 25%

During semester there will be two quizzes that will be accessed via iLearn. The quizzes will require students to answer a series of questions relating to the key readings, lecture content and photographic examples from the unit. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- distinguish between and critically evaluate theoretical positions on photographic practices and texts.
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

Assessment Type ¹: Creative work

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: 23:55 28/04/2023

Weighting: 50%

The photo essay assignment gives you the opportunity to make connections between the theory and practice of photography. Students will not be assessed on technical photographic skills but rather on their understanding of the genre of the photo essay, their ability to communicate a clear narrative in the photo essay, the creativity of their response and the clarity of the accompanying writing. Students will also provide a reflection on the process of producing a photo essay. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- identify key themes, ideas and concepts in theories of photography.
- communicate narratives and ideas through the combination of photographs and text
- evidence engagement with and reflection on contemporary photographic media.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Lectures begin in Week 1. Lectures are online only. They will be recorded and posted on iLearn weekly. Lectures must be viewed before the weekly tutorial.
