Unit description

This unit explores the complex relation between technology and culture. The impact of digital and networking technologies on everyday cultural practices and forms of expression is examined with reference to their production, use and circulation. The cultural and social implications of digital and network technologies are studied and broad social, political and cultural issues regarding technology are considered in the specific context of creative expression, communication and representation.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO2: develop an expanded knowledge of the history of art and technology.

ULO1: understand a range of theories about technology and society.

ULO3: appreciate and evaluate the complex relationship between digital networked technology and culture.

ULO4: assess contemporary art, media and network culture.

ULO5: Relate ideas and evaluate concepts in aesthetics

ULO6: Develop a range of critical and creative thinking attributes

General Assessment Information

Detailed assessment instructions, assessment criteria and rubrics will be available in the assessment section on iLearn. We will also discuss assessments in class. The in-class lectures and learning activities are designed to support the development of your assessments.

All assessments must be submitted via the Turnitin submission link in iLearn. Please submit a single file. (See iLearn for additional instructions regarding submitting multimedia)

Special Consideration:

If you experience serious and unavoidable difficulties when assessment tasks are due, you can consider applying for Special Consideration. Please read the information available here and, if you are eligible, apply via ask.mq.edu.au.

Late Penalty:

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.

Grades:

In line with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, grades align with the descriptors available here.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Lectures commence in week 1. Tutorials commence in week 2.

This unit is offered both face-to-face and online. Both modes of enrollment are the same and include one weekly hour-long online lecture and one hour-long tutorial. The weekly lecture for this unit will be delivered live online regardless of your mode of enrolment. See iLearn for instructions on accessing the live lecture. A recording of this lecture will be available for review in Echo360 via iLearn.

To enrol in an online tutorial you will need to be enrolled in the online (external) mode. There will likely be tutorials available on every day of the week depending on student numbers. If you would like to enrol in an online tutorial but have enrolled in F2F (internal) mode it is easy to switch to online (external) so you can enroll in online tutorials. Please do so before the enrollment cut off date. Contact ask.mq.edu.au with any enrolment issues. (Your convenor is unable to help with technical enrolment issues.)

Required Readings:

All required readings and other media will be available via Leganto (See link on right hand side of iLearn). Please consult iLearn for weekly readings and other media.
