Unit description

This unit provides students with applied knowledge in the area of performance and event management in the performing arts and entertainment industries including talent management, marketing, social media strategies, event planning, production, publishing and distribution in both live events and the growing area of online arts and entertainment. This unit will develop your management skills in a broad range of contexts across performance and event management in the performing arts and entertainment industries including corporate and online events. No prior experience of the performing arts and entertainment industries is required.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: analyse discipline-specific creative, managerial, production and communication skills.

ULO2: apply concepts, theories and frameworks across management and event production in the creation of an event.

ULO3: manage resources effectively.

ULO4: work effectively in collaborative creative teams from initial concept to realisation.

General Assessment Information

Attendance It is vitally important for all students to attend/view online lectures and attend all the tutorials for this unit either in face-to-face or online formats.

Independent Work Students are expected to work independently in individual assessments and in their group project assessments outside of scheduled tutorial times. For example, students in this course will need to do their own reading of relevant texts and at times liaise and work with group members outside scheduled class time.

Assessment standards Assessment standards which are used to evaluate students' work in the assessment tasks are aligned with the assessment rubrics. Detailed information will be provided in class and available from iLearn.

Referencing Style The referencing style for this unit is APA 7. see <https://apastyle.apa.org/instructional-aids/reference-examples.pdf>

Electronic Submissions Assessments for this unit are to be submitted online via Turnitin which can be accessed through the MMCC3035 iLearn website. Detailed information will be provided in class and available from iLearn.

Feedback Feedback will be given to students in tutorials in face-to-face and online formats, and also in the form of text comments in Turnitin. Students can also book a Zoom consultation via email, and can contact the convenor directly via email or through the contact teaching staff direct private link on the iLearn page.

Specifically for the Plan to Realisation assessment feedback will be delivered in the tutorials in face-to-face and online formats and via Turnitin for the group presentation, (weighting of 50% of the assessment), and via Turnitin for the individual report (weighting of 50% of the assessment). For the Case Study assessment feedback will be delivered in the tutorials in face-to-face and online formats and via Turnitin

Late Assessment Submission Penalty Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/ exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
