Unit description

From Hollywood to Bollywood; from popular to Indy/cult; from international to national cinema, students will explore fictional and documentary film/cinema, TV and online content from a range of countries. The unit also examines historical examples and their relation to contemporary and emerging ideas of cinema and film production and practices within various cultural contexts. Students will engage with key ideas and debates relevant to film studies, and will evaluate stylistic modes of film criticism.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: analyse and evaluate the key ideas and the main debates relevant to a specific region of film studies.

ULO2: demonstrate an expanded historical knowledge of genre film and film theory.

ULO3: apply skills in film-textual analysis to gain a deeper understanding of film interpretation.

ULO4: evaluate different stylistic modes of film criticism (writing about films).

General Assessment Information

SUBMISSION

All written work must be submitted to Turnitin, via the link on iLearn. Please make sure your full name and student number appears on the first page of your document. All written work should be double spaced and justified to the left of the page.

LATE PENALTY

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Please make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special Consideration requests before you apply: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>

Online Quizzes

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 5 hours

Due: Weeks 3-12, due every Friday 09:00

Weighting: 30%

It is important in this unit to explore key concepts and theoretical positions pertaining to the major topics in Screen, Images, Ideas. Students will undertake weekly online multiple choice quizzes from week 3 to week 12 accessed via iLearn. These are worth 3% of your total mark each, 30% in total. For each quiz, there will be 5 questions that you need to answer in 30 minutes. These questions are based on the readings and lecture content. Correct answers will be provided after the quiz is completed. Examples will be given on week 2. Students will be notified by a unit announcement on iLearn when the quizzes are available for completion. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- analyse and evaluate the key ideas and the main debates relevant to a specific region of film studies.

Major Essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 35 hours

Due: 31/05/2023, 11:55pm

Weighting: 40%

Students will write an academic essay of 1800 words that covers unit materials from week 1-12. Students will compare a film that has been discussed in class with a film of their choice. They will analyse the films with regards to a specific theme or concept introduced in the unit. In the essay, social, political, and/ or historical contexts must be discussed in relation to the formal elements of the film. Bibliography must include at least four academic references, and two of them must be from the unit readings. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- analyse and evaluate the key ideas and the main debates relevant to a specific region of film studies.
- demonstrate an expanded historical knowledge of genre film and film theory.
- apply skills in film-textual analysis to gain a deeper understanding of film interpretation.
- evaluate different stylistic modes of film criticism (writing about films).

Short essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 26 hours

Due: 07/04/2023, 11:55pm

Weighting: 30%

Students will write a short essay of 800 words about a film discussed in class. Students will focus on a specific aspect of the film, such as image, colour, sound, mise-en-scene in relation to the concepts introduced in the unit. Bibliography must include at least two academic references from the unit reading. Refer to iLearn for further information

On successful completion you will be able to:

- analyse and evaluate the key ideas and the main debates relevant to a specific region of film studies.
- demonstrate an expanded historical knowledge of genre film and film theory.
- apply skills in film-textual analysis to gain a deeper understanding of film interpretation.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

CLASSES

Unit lectures will be delivered as videos accessible via iLearn. Tutorials start on week 1.

Before attending the weekly tutorial, students need to make sure that they do the following:

- 1) Watch the lecture video on iLearn.
- 2) Watch the film of the week, available online via Macquarie University library (see iLearn for details).
- 3) Read the required articles. 4) Take the online quiz (starting on week 3).

Please check with MQ Timetables for the time and location of your tutorial.

REQUIRED READINGS

Required readings will be available through the library's multisearch function and Leganto.

TECHNOLOGIES USED AND REQUIRED

Details on readings, assessments, and screenings will be available via iLearn. Students are expected to regularly check iLearn and their MQ email addresses for an announcement.

Unit Schedule

MMCC3140 has a specific topic each year. This year, the unit focuses on the link between travel and cinema. It addresses questions around representations of travel. We will examine how travel has been portrayed in various genres, including road movies, the Western, musicals, melodrama, and science fiction. We will also look at the idea of travel beyond screen representations, delving into identities of the filmmakers as travellers as well as the impact of how film travels. Finally, we will engage with discourses of travel such as tourism, migration, and displacement as some of the most important political issues today and analyse how images and narratives of travel are shaped by historical contexts from colonialism to globalisation.

Week 1: Travel – from exploration to travel to tourism

Week 2: Figures of travelers: the tourist and/ as the flaneur

Week 3 - Women on the Road

Week 4 - Queer Mobility

Week 5 - Travel and Empire

Week 6: Documentary and Narratives of Discovery

Week 7 – Ethnographic Film and Counterdiscourses

--- Semester break ---

Week 8 - Migrant cinema

Week 9 - Refugee-themed Films

Week 10: Neoliberalism and Global Citizen

Week 11: Travel and Traveling Genre in Global Cinema

Week 12: Techno-Orientalism: Cities and Encounters in Science Fiction
