Unit description
This unit is designed to help students to apply the scholarly skills and concepts studied in the Bachelor of Marketing and Media to professional practices. This is an interdisciplinary unit, where students will learn aspects of marketing and media as a dynamic professional nexus. Students will explore key opportunities, challenges and trends as they relate to industry, creative practice and research. As media and marketing technologies continue to rapidly evolve, the emphasis in this unit is on contemporary phenomena and the skills needed to navigate this increasingly influential and important field.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: collaborate and apply integrated marketing and media knowledge and skills to undertake professional work

ULO2: critically evaluate contemporary issues, opportunities, challenges and trends as they relate to industry

ULO3: apply technical skills to meet marketing and media imperatives

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
