Unit description

This unit explores the role of, and interrelationship between, the media and the creative and entertainment industries in shaping socio-cultural and individual identities. Arts policy and funding, and the role of the artist or 'creative' in contributing to an Australian national identity and economic growth is also situated in an increasingly globalized context.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: demonstrate advanced disciplinary knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specialised subject content in contemporary media and creative industries.

ULO2: identify the economic and socio-cultural contexts within which the media and creative industries operate.

ULO3: examine the global influences on media and creative industries practices in Australia.

ULO4: analyse and communicate the issues and debates relating to the media, creative and cultural industries.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

These are serious penalties that will substantially alter your final grade and even determine whether you pass or fail this unit. Please make every effort to submit your assignment by the due date.

If you find you cannot submit your assignment on time, please apply for Special Consideration through AskMQ. Make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special Consideration requests before you apply:

<https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>

Attendance and Participation:

Students are expected to view all lectures for MMCC6010. Lectures are not optional: they are a central component of meeting the learning outcomes in this unit, and deliver important content that is directly assessed. Students who elect to not view lectures will miss out on important unit content, and do so at their own risk.

Students are expected to attend all seminars/tutorials for MMCC6010. Seminars/tutorials are not optional: they deliver important content and are a central component of meeting the learning outcomes in this unit. Seminar/tutorial discussions provide an environment where students can discuss ideas and learn from each other, building important networks and group work skills. In tutorials, you will also have the opportunity to ask for assistance from your tutor, and receive informal feedback on work in progress. Students who do not attend seminars/tutorials will miss out on important unit content and learning activities, and do so at their own risk.

Independent Work:

MMCC6010 students will need to do their own reading of relevant texts or online materials outside class time.

Group Exercises:

Students are expected to work in groups for tutorials. Students in this unit must be willing to work within a group and to assume responsibility for the group's progress.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Process Journal	40%	No	23.55 10/09/2023
Pitch Presentation	60%	No	23.55 29/10/2023

Process Journal

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 45 hours

Due: 23.55 10/09/2023

Weighting: 40%

Students are expected to keep a weekly process journal. This journal will document their engagement with the course material and learning activities in the weekly seminars as well as their independent research. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- demonstrate advanced disciplinary knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specialised subject content in contemporary media and creative industries.
- identify the economic and socio-cultural contexts within which the media and creative industries operate.

Pitch Presentation

Assessment Type ¹: Presentation

Indicative Time on Task ²: 53 hours

Due: 23.55 29/10/2023

Weighting: 60%

Students working in groups conceive of a possible work, product, or project of the media or creative industries that suggests an innovative way to embrace, critique, or appropriate the globalisation phenomenon for a local or international context. Each student's individual pitch presentation (recorded via Zoom or Echo360) should be accompanied by an original proposal that is contextualised in a multimodal format that includes writing, visual, audio, and/or online platform. Refer to iLearn for further information.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- demonstrate advanced disciplinary knowledge, scholarly understanding, and specialised subject content in contemporary media and creative industries.
- examine the global influences on media and creative industries practices in Australia.
- analyse and communicate the issues and debates relating to the media, creative and cultural industries.

¹ If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Lectures are delivered simultaneously on campus and online. A recorded version of in-person lectures will be made available for viewing online on the same day.

Tutorials are delivered on campus (for in-person enrolments) and via Zoom (for online enrolments).

*MMCC6010 lectures and tutorial classes will start in Week 2.

*Unit readings will be available on Leganto.
