Unit description
This unit examines the theory and practice of test use in professional psychology. The unit teaches key aspects of administration, scoring and interpretation of a broad range of tests likely to be utilised in professional psychological practice. Students are instructed in the accurate reporting of results.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Administer a variety of psychological tests of cognition and behaviour used in the specific discipline of enrolment, including competence in the selection and use of appropriate normative information.

ULO2: Score, interpret and communicate the results of psychological assessment, with reference to diagnostic considerations.

ULO3: Critically evaluate the current evidence base in order to conduct a suicide and risk assessment in line with regulatory frameworks.
General Assessment Information

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

All final grades are determined by a grading committee, in accordance with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded a final grade and a mark which must correspond to the grade descriptors specified in the Assessment Procedure (clause 128).

To pass this unit, you must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes, meet any ungraded requirements, and achieve a final mark of 50 or better.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn.

Late Submissions

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (OF THE TOTAL POSSIBLE MARK) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.
