Unit description

This unit explores the intersections between law and morality by analysing cases drawn from a variety of jurisdictions - Australia, the US, the UK, Canada, Europe and South Africa - which raise topical and controversial human rights dilemmas. For example, cases on hate speech are explored against the background of philosophical analyses of the value of freedom of speech. Cases involving state funding of religious schools and religious symbols in state schools are explored in light of philosophical debates about separation between religion and state. Other topics covered include: privacy; multiculturalism and gender; anti-terrorism legislation; and socio-economic rights.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain and analyse the philosophical foundations of the idea of human rights.

ULO2: Describe, compare and critique the different ways in which human rights are protected against legislative infringement in a variety of jurisdictions.

ULO3: Analyse the moral and political values that underpin a range of human rights.

ULO4: Critically assess the way in which different jurisdictions balance the moral and political values underpinning human rights in selected human rights cases.

ULO5: Resolve human rights dilemmas by applying relevant theoretical approaches.

General Assessment Information

Academic Honesty

Students should be aware of and apply the University policy on academic honesty.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Submission of assessments

All written assessments in the unit are to be submitted electronically by way of Turnitin on the iLearn page. Plagiarism detection software is used in this unit to check all written assessments.

Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment as no re-submissions will be accepted after the due date and time, including instances where students upload an incorrect file in error.

Format

All assessment tasks in this unit must be typed in Word format and be double spaced to facilitate marking in Turnitin.

Word Limits

Word limits will be strictly applied and work above the word limit will not be assessed.

Moderation

Detailed marking rubrics will be made available on iLearn. In addition, tutors will be provided with detailed marking guides to ensure consistency. All fail papers will be double marked. The Unit Convenor and Tutors will meet to review final grades for the unit.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Participatory tasks	20%	No	Ongoing, Due 03/11/2023
Annotated bibliography	25%	No	Due 22/09/2023
Major essay	55%	No	Due 03/11/2023

Participatory tasks

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 12 hours

Due: Ongoing, Due 03/11/2023

Weighting: 20%

A series of participatory tasks scheduled throughout the semester to evaluate student progress and participation in the unit. These may include reflective tasks, reporting back from group discussions, participating in debates, presentations on assigned readings, and peer review and feedback.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain and analyse the philosophical foundations of the idea of human rights.
- Describe, compare and critique the different ways in which human rights are protected against legislative infringement in a variety of jurisdictions.
- Analyse the moral and political values that underpin a range of human rights.
- Critically assess the way in which different jurisdictions balance the moral and political values underpinning human rights in selected human rights cases.
- Resolve human rights dilemmas by applying relevant theoretical approaches.

Annotated bibliography

Assessment Type ¹: Annotated bibliography

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Due 22/09/2023

Weighting: 25%

This task requires students to prepare an annotated bibliography of sources that are relevant to the research topic they have chosen for their final paper. Students will be required to identify relevant sources, provide a brief description and some analysis of the content of the source and evaluate it in terms of its relevance to the research topic.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain and analyse the philosophical foundations of the idea of human rights.
- Describe, compare and critique the different ways in which human rights are protected against legislative infringement in a variety of jurisdictions.

Major essay

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: Due 03/11/2023

Weighting: 55%

This task requires students to use a relevant theoretical approach to explore a human rights issue. The essay requires the student to conduct independent research.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain and analyse the philosophical foundations of the idea of human rights.
- Analyse the moral and political values that underpin a range of human rights.
- Critically assess the way in which different jurisdictions balance the moral and political values underpinning human rights in selected human rights cases.
- Resolve human rights dilemmas by applying relevant theoretical approaches.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Technology used and required

To participate successfully in this unit, students will require access to the unit iLearn page. This will require access to secure and reliable computer facilities. Students will be required to upload all assessment tasks by way of Turnitin on the unit iLearn page.

Delivery

The unit will be delivered as a series of weekly lectures (2 hours total) running from Week 1 until Week 12, which will be recorded on Echo360. It is important that you attend or listen to the lectures every week for guidance on content and how best to approach the various assessment items. The unit will include a series of weekly one hour tutorials running from Week 2 to Week 13 either face to face or online, and attendance at at least 10 of these is compulsory.

Readings

A list of required readings is available through the link to Leganto (Unit Readings) via iLearn. Where students are required to only read extracts from the readings, the relevant pages or sections are indicated in Leganto.

Unit Schedule

A detailed weekly schedule will be provided on the unit iLearn page. The topics to be covered in this unit are as follows:

- Basic Concepts
- Rights Protection
- Free Speech Theory
- Free Speech Issues
- Non-Discrimination I
- Non-Discrimination II
- Privacy and Paternalism
- State and Religion Relations
- Faith, Culture and Gender
- Security and the Law
- Emotion and the Law
- Rights of the Non-Human
