Unit description
This unit provides opportunities to develop your professional identity and map next steps in your career. You will reflect on what you have learned so far about the practice of your discipline(s). Based on (1) your own preliminary career planning, (2) self-assessment of your values, attributes and skills and (3) an understanding of valuable skills in the future of work, you will identify, explore and practice skills, such as self-awareness, communication and having an inclusive mindset, to enhance your employability.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

- ULO1: Self-assess values, skills and attributes relevant to career planning.
- ULO2: Develop communication, relationship management and leadership skills in a team environment.
- ULO3: Critique opportunities associated with an inclusive mindset and global citizenship.

General Assessment Information
The task descriptions listed here are summaries. To complete the assessments, you will need to... review the full instructions on iLearn.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Unit participation

Assessment Type 1: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours

Due: Part 1: week 3; Part 2: weekly submissions weeks 1-13

Weighting: 30%

Participation and engagement online, in lectures and in workshops is compulsory and critical to support learning and employability development. Marks are based on engagement in activities, outputs and reflections.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Self-assess values, skills and attributes relevant to career planning.
- Develop communication, relationship management and leadership skills in a team environment.
- Critique opportunities associated with an inclusive mindset and global citizenship.
Job application portfolio

Assessment Type 1: Portfolio
Indicative Time on Task 2: 35 hours
Due: Week 7
Weighting: 40%

Reflecting on discipline knowledge and other relevant experience, students will develop materials to include in a job application portfolio.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Self-assess values, skills and attributes relevant to career planning.
• Develop communication, relationship management and leadership skills in a team environment.

Professional Project

Assessment Type 1: Practice-based task
Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours
Due: Week 12
Weighting: 30%

Student teams complete a project or simulation with industry engagement to provide background and context for activities. Student teams reflect on their learning to generate an output.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Self-assess values, skills and attributes relevant to career planning.
• Develop communication, relationship management and leadership skills in a team environment.
• Critique opportunities associated with an inclusive mindset and global citizenship.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:

• the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
• the Writing Centre for academic skills support.
Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation.

Delivery and Resources

Interactive lectures and workshops

Each week, your learning will begin with a 1-hour interactive lecture introducing the week’s topic. This will be followed by your weekly 2-hour workshop, in which you’ll engage in practical activities to apply what you learned in the lecture. Learning in this unit depends on active engagement in the classroom. You are expected to participate in every lecture and workshop unless you have a serious and unavoidable disruption to studies.

Class participation and marks

Not attending and participating will have a negative impact on all assessment marks. You must be present, engaged and submit to the weekly forum at the end of the workshop to qualify for participation marks. Further, you’ll develop elements of the job application portfolio and professional project during class.
