Unit description This unit develops knowledge and understanding of the international business environment and business operations in foreign markets through first-hand observation of businesses in a foreign country. It is designed for students with background knowledge of, and interest in, business processes in an international context. The unit includes a series of seminars and a study tour to a foreign country. As this unit requires students to attend a supervised study tour, additional costs are involved. Contact Macquarie Business School for full details.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Synthesise key management, business and international business concepts and theories and assess the practical application of these concepts and theories in the context of conducting business in a foreign country.

ULO2: Communicate in a professional environment and reflect on study tour experiences and learning for personal and professional development.

ULO3: Examine the business environment in a foreign country and identify and analyse issues faced in order to extrapolate insights into challenges faced by businesses operating in an external economy.

ULO4: Develop effective and justifiable strategies and solutions to identified business and/or cultural issues, individually and in a collaborative environment.

General Assessment Information

Portfolio and Final Report

Submission: Attendance is compulsory.

Extension: No extension will be granted unless an application is approved under the Special Consideration Policy in accordance with the University rules.

Penalties: Zero mark for non-submission. Unless an application for Special Consideration has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern. For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests, exams, performance assessments, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Portfolio and Final Report	60%	No	Week 5, 11 and 12
Active Participation	20%	No	Ongoing
Reflective Journals	20%	No	Week 10

Portfolio and Final Report

Assessment Type ¹: Portfolio

Indicative Time on Task ²: 40 hours

Due: Week 5, 11 and 12

Weighting: 60%

This task consists of 3 stages/ components of work and is a combination of individual and group work: 1. Individual: 1,000 word pre-trip report (worth 15%) 2. Individual: 2,000 word post-trip final report (worth 25%) 3. Group: Presentation and/or video (worth 20%)

For individual work, each group member is required to develop a different yet connected topic for his/her individual report, based on the learning throughout the lectures, readings and field trip in India. These topics developed individually will then be combined into a coherent and well-structured group presentation and/or video. Presentations and/or video should be produced to a standard suitable for presentation to a professional audience.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Synthesise key management, business and international business concepts and theories and assess the practical application of these concepts and theories in the context of conducting business in a foreign country.
- Communicate in a professional environment and reflect on study tour experiences and learning for personal and professional development.
- Examine the business environment in a foreign country and identify and analyse issues faced in order to extrapolate insights into challenges faced by businesses operating in an external economy.
- Develop effective and justifiable strategies and solutions to identified business and/or cultural issues, individually and in a collaborative environment.

Active Participation

Assessment Type ¹: Participatory task

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: Ongoing

Weighting: 20%

Students will be expected to attend and actively participate in pre-trip seminars, in-class discussion and all field trip activities.

Contributions will be assessed based on preparation, quality of participation and engagement with peers, lecturer(s) and business hosts, professionalism at site-visits and during the tour and a student's ability to synthesise theories with the practical application of these theories observed during their study tour.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Synthesise key management, business and international business concepts and theories and assess the practical application of these concepts and theories in the context of conducting business in a foreign country.
- Communicate in a professional environment and reflect on study tour experiences and learning for personal and professional development.
- Examine the business environment in a foreign country and identify and analyse issues faced in order to extrapolate insights into challenges faced by businesses operating in an external economy.
- Develop effective and justifiable strategies and solutions to identified business and/or cultural issues, individually and in a collaborative environment.

Reflective Journals

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: Week 10

Weighting: 20%

Students are expected to produce regular reflective journals outlining their personal experience and learning from the study tour experience. They are expected to submit five entries from their reflective journals. Students will be assessed on the quality of their reflection, including their growth/development in self-awareness.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Synthesise key management, business and international business concepts and theories and assess the practical application of these concepts and theories in the context of conducting business in a foreign country.
- Communicate in a professional environment and reflect on study tour experiences and learning for personal and professional development.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Contacting staff

• Consultation times

Staff will be available for consultation; these times will be posted to unit homepage by Week 1 of the session. You are encouraged to seek help at a time that is convenient to you from staff on this unit during their specified consultation hours. In special circumstances, an appointment may be made outside regular consultation hours. Staff will not conduct any consultations by e-mail. You may, however, phone staff during their consultation hours. In order to gain access to staff located at levels 1 and 2 of building 4ER during their consultation hours please ring the staff member from the phones available in the lobby (phone numbers of relevant staff members will be provided on iLearn and are available next to the phones).

- Other ways of contacting staff

The most effective way for students to contact staff is via email. Students experiencing significant difficulties with any topic in the unit are strongly encouraged to seek assistance immediately.

Classes

The learning experience is delivered through pre-departure seminars in the first half of the semester at MQ campus and 2-week study tour to India where students will visit industry, government organisations, cultural, social and educational institutions to observe and understand the business environment in India. There will be no lectures after the field trip except for weekly consultations and student presentation session in Week 12.

- Number and length of classes: 3 hour face-to-face and 2 weeks of the study tour.
- The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at:
<http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/>

Required and Recommended texts and/or materials

We will use case studies and reading materials that link to the content for the course.

Technology Used and Required

You will need basic skills with Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel and Microsoft PowerPoint. The research report e-copy can be submitted in Word or PDF. You will also be required to access the Internet in order to conduct research and Macquarie University's iLearn teaching facility (refer to the detail contained below in Unit Web Page).

UNIT WEB PAGE

The university's on-line learning site "iLearn" is used to provide announcements, forms, some course materials (including weekly lecture notes) and to submit e-copies of the assignment. Login at <http://learn.mq.edu.au/> Reading material for this unit is all available on the Library's e-Reserve. Access to the e-Reserve is made using the student number and password supplied to you by the Library. A link will also be provided on iLearn.
