Unit description

This unit will allow students to develop understanding and knowledge of issues impacting the delivery of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander education in Australia. Lectures and tutorials focus on developing students' knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives and issues in education. Students will learn about relevant resources, approaches and policies in Indigenous education as well as an understanding of engaging the Indigenous community.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate understanding of Indigenous histories and cultures and how this might be taught and applied in an educational setting

ULO2: Explain the strategies to teach Indigenous education and engage Indigenous students in the classroom

ULO3: Understand the different resources, approaches and contacts to engage the Indigenous community as well as a general awareness of policies and general practices in Indigenous education

ULO4: Apply knowledge and understanding of Indigenous knowledge and culture in the classroom and in teachings

General Assessment Information

- Students should be aware of and apply the University policy on academic honesty (see: <https://policies.mq.edu.au/document/view.php?id=3>)
- Unless a Special Consideration (see: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>) request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of, 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11:55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc).
- Please format assessments using 12-point font and 1.5 spacing. · All assessments are submitted electronically. Turnitin plagiarism detection software is used to check all written assessments.
- Students can use Turnitin's Originality Report as a learning tool to improve their academic writing if this option is made available in the unit.
- Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment as no re-submissions will be accepted after the due date and time, including instances where students upload an incorrect file in error.
- Word limits are strictly applied. Work above the word limit will not be marked.
- All assessments are marked using a clear marking scheme or a rubric.
- Marking of all assessments is moderated by the Unit Convenor.
- Applications for extensions must be made via AskMQ (<https://ask.mq.edu.au/>).

· It is not the responsibility of unit staff to contact students who have failed to submit assessments. If you have any missing items of assessment, it is your responsibility to make contact with the unit convenor.

University policy on grading

Criteria for awarding grades for assessment tasks Assignments will be awarded grades ranging from HD to F according to guidelines set out in the University's Grading Policy. For Professional Experience (PEX) units the PE Report is marked as satisfactory or unsatisfactory and the Teaching Performance Assessment (in final PE units) is marked as not meets, meets or exceeds.

Descriptive Criteria for awarding grades in the unit

To meet the unit outcomes and successfully pass this unit, students should attempt all assessment tasks.

Grade	Descriptor
HD (High Distinction)	Provides consistent evidence of deep and critical understanding in relation to the learning outcomes. There is substantial originality and insight in identifying, generating and communicating competing arguments, perspectives or problem-solving approaches; critical evaluation of problems, their solutions and their implications; creativity in application as appropriate to the discipline.
D (Distinction)	Provides evidence of integration and evaluation of critical ideas, principles and theories, distinctive insight and ability in applying relevant skills and concepts in relation to learning outcomes. There is demonstration of frequent originality in defining and analysing issues or problems and providing solutions; and the use of means of communication appropriate to the discipline and the audience.
Cr (Credit)	Provides evidence of learning that goes beyond replication of content knowledge or skills relevant to the learning outcomes. There is demonstration of substantial understanding of fundamental concepts in the field of study and the ability to apply these concepts in a variety of contexts; convincing argumentation with appropriate coherent justification; communication of ideas fluently and clearly in terms of the conventions of the discipline.
P (Pass)	Provides sufficient evidence of the achievement of learning outcomes. There is demonstration of understanding and application of fundamental concepts of the field of study; routine argumentation with acceptable justification; communication of information and ideas adequately in terms of the conventions of the discipline. The learning attainment is considered satisfactory or adequate or competent or capable in relation to the specified outcomes

Delivery and Resources

Unit delivery

This unit is delivered in two modes. You will either be enrolled as a Weekday face-to-face student, or an INFQ student. Weekday face-to-face students will watch each Lecture via Echo260 and do the prescribed weekly reading(s) prior to attending their tutorial. INFQ students will be required to watch each Lecture via Echo360, engage in the weekly online forums, and do the prescribed weekly reading(s) up to the date of each On-Campus Day. Each On-Campus Day is designed in alignment with the content in lectures, readings, and online activities in a chronological order.

Information about the unit iLearn site

This unit has a full web presence through iLearn. Students will need regular access to a computer and the Internet to complete this unit. Weekly access to Echo360 and iLearn are compulsory for all students. Important assessment information will be posted on iLearn, as will other relevant unit Announcements.

Powerpoint slides of Lectures and Tutorials will be made available for each week of content, prior to the week commencing.

All readings for this unit will be supplied on Leganto via iLearn. There is no textbook for this unit.
