Unit description
This unit explores the law relating to the making and construction of wills; the grant of probate and administration; and the distribution of testate and intestate estates. The provisions of the Family Provision Act 1982 are considered as well as those of the Wills, Probate and Administration Act 1898 (NSW) and the Succession Act 2006 (NSW). Emphasis is given to the role of the lawyer in planning the client's affairs in the light of the above legislation. Students in this unit will study will drafting and complete exercises in drafting a will that complies with a client's instructions.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe and explain links between understandings of property and relationships in the context of succession law.
ULO2: Analyse case law on the Succession Act 2006 (NSW) and apply to the validity and interpretation of wills.
ULO3: Critically evaluate the law on family provision and apply family provision legislation to complex factual situations involving estate disputes.

ULO4: Advise on competing family claims dealing with testate estates, intestate estates and partial intestacy.

ULO5: Assess the various legal principles to give appropriate advice on wills.

General Assessment Information

General Assessment Information

All assessments are submitted electronically.

Turnitin plagiarism detection software is used to check all written assessments. Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment, as re-submissions will not be accepted after the due date and time, including instances where students upload an incorrect file in error.

Word limits are strictly applied. Work above the word limit will not be marked. Footnotes are to be used only for referencing.

Referencing must conform to the requirements set out in the Australian Guide to Legal Citation 4th edition.

Marking of all assessments is moderated through a process of blind marking and the use of detailed marking rubrics.

Late penalty policy Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of ‘0’ (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted.

Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessments (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time-sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.

Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic. Special Consideration Students should submit applications for Special Consideration electronically via ask.mq.edu.au, along with the supporting documentation. Before submitting their applications, students should refer to the Special Consideration Policy (link provided under ‘Policies and Procedures’ below).
