Unit description

The digital technology revolution is rapidly transforming the financial industry and the use of digital technologies is becoming the norm. Disruptive technologies are impacting not only the way financial intermediaries operate, but also the way payment system works. Such technologies enable you to monetize almost anything. This unit covers the fundamentals of the innovative financial intermediaries such as peer to peer lending, crowdfunding and digital payment technologies. This unit also provides an overview of digital payment schemes and how digital payment system integrates with traditional payment technologies.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Understand the fundamentals of digital payment systems and digital financial services.

ULO2: Explore innovative financial intermediaries such as peer to peer lending, crowdfunding and other new emerging systems.

ULO3: Evaluate the impacts and the challenges of new digital finance on financial institutions and business.

ULO4: Work productively in a group to assess the adoption and impacts of digital financial services to financial institutions and business.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
