Unit description
The ability to effectively communicate and persuade others is an increasingly crucial managerial and leadership skill. Traditional and common sense models of communication often fail to capture the complex, interactive and dramatic nature of what this involves. This unit attempts to remedy this gap by helping you to develop knowledge, capabilities and skills in the following areas of communication and persuasion: their character and significance; different forms and styles; situational, cultural and global factors in determining effectiveness; and the nature of communication programs and persuasion campaigns in innovation projects and transformation programs.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

UL01: Critically evaluate a range of theories to decode the components of persuasive communications

UL02: Apply a range of different strategies in a variety of context to build rapport, overcome resistance, and find acceptance, individually and/or in collaboration with peers.

UL03: Develop skills to interpret the motivation of the audience and influence the way they think and feel to support your ideas

General Assessment Information

Late submissions of assessments

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Special Consideration

To request an extension on the due date/time for a timed or non-timed assessment task, you must submit a Special Consideration application. An application for Special Consideration does not guarantee approval.

The approved extension date for a student becomes the new due date for that student. The late submission penalties above then apply as of the new due date.

Word limits

Anything beyond a stated assessment word limit (other than your reference list) may not be marked. Seek any further clarification from the unit convenor.
