Unit description
This unit examines the fundamentals of the Australian taxation system. A critical approach is emphasised throughout. Students will be encouraged to think beyond the black letter law to appreciate the complexity and challenges of taxation law issues in their wider societal context.

Topics covered include:

- A broad overview of Australian taxation law and its international context
- The rationale for taxation, taxation’s role in society, taxation policy and taxation reform
- Global taxation and its impact on Australia
- Residence and source
- The concept of income and assessable income
- Capital gains and their inclusion in assessable income through Capital Gains Tax (CGT)
- Allowable deductions including the general and specific deductions
- Taxation of partnerships, trusts and corporations
- Indirect and state based taxes such as: Goods and Services Tax (GST), Fringe Benefits Tax (FBT), Transfer duty, Land tax and Payroll Tax, and
- Anti-avoidance.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates
Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain and analyse the fundamental values and principles that relate to taxation in Australia in their societal context.

ULO2: Identify tax law issues and be able to apply Income Tax, GST, FBT, CGT and State tax laws including provisions regulating tax avoidance for the purposes of giving legal advice.

ULO3: Analyse taxation statutes and their interpretation by courts and the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and comprehend how the development of taxation law affects tax management and planning strategies for individuals and other legal entities.

ULO4: Analyse the way that taxation laws impact Australian individuals and businesses from the perspective of revenue raising and distribution, taxation accountability and tax administration to assess current taxation challenges in Australia and globally.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11:55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-time sensitive assessment (your assignment). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (your oncall class participation and examination) will only be addressed by the unit convenor following a Special consideration application. Special Consideration, if granted, will result in a supplementary examination or a rescheduled class participation task.
