Unit description
The English language is used in many different ways: to inform, to question, to report, to regulate, to express emotions, to advertise products, to create images, to construct works of literature. Drawing on a view of language as a 'social semiotic', this unit moves from some basic and traditional concepts in English grammar to looking at the grammatical choices users of English make in a variety of contexts, with lectures covering both theory and practice. The theoretical lectures provide an introduction to some basic concepts of, and tools for, a functional approach to grammar description and analysis of its application to context. The practical lectures and online activities invite students to explore the relationship between the grammar of and the contextual meanings in texts - both spoken and written - drawn from many different social contexts.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate an understanding of what is meant by a functional approach to English grammar, and in particular the functional approach taken by systemic functional grammarians.

ULO2: Use basic terminology (in terms of both traditional and systemic functional grammar) used by grammarians to describe grammatical phenomena.

ULO3: Analyse short texts in terms of their grammatical patterns.

ULO4: Discuss the role of language as it is used in a variety of social contexts.

ULO5: Communicate in academic writing the ways composers of either written or spoken texts use language choices and other text design strategies to target their chosen audience as well as meet their own needs in the communicative process.

General Assessment Information

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

All final grades are determined by a grading committee, in accordance with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded a final grade and a mark which must correspond to the grade descriptors specified in the Assessment Procedure (clause 128).

To pass this unit, you must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes, meet any ungraded requirements, and achieve a final mark of 50 or better.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn.

Late Submissions

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (OF THE TOTAL POSSIBLE MARK) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

Short Essay
Assessment Type: Essay
Indicative Time on Task: 10 hours
Due: Week 3 10/03/24
Weighting: 10%

In this short essay students analyse the context of a provided text (500 words)

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of what is meant by a functional approach to English grammar, and in particular the functional approach taken by systemic functional grammarians.
- Discuss the role of language as it is used in a variety of social contexts.
- Communicate in academic writing the ways composers of either written or spoken texts use language choices and other text design strategies to target their chosen audience as well as meet their own needs in the communicative process.

Grammar Exercise
Assessment Type: Quiz/Test
Indicative Time on Task: 30 hours
Due: Week 6 & Week 8
Weighting: 35%

This grammar exercise is based on Lectures 4-14 and will cover experiential and interpersonal meanings. Students are strongly advised to participate in the online practice grammar quizzes in order to prepare for this assessment as our research indicates there is a direct correlation between practice quiz participation and the assessment grade.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Demonstrate an understanding of what is meant by a functional approach to English grammar, and in particular the functional approach taken by systemic functional grammarians.
• Use basic terminology (in terms of both traditional and systemic functional grammar) used by grammarians to describe grammatical phenomena.
• Analyse short texts in terms of their grammatical patterns.
• Discuss the role of language as it is used in a variety of social contexts.

Major Essay

Assessment Type: Essay
Indicative Time on Task: 20 hours
Due: Week 11 19/05/24
Weighting: 25%

This 1200 word essay will require you to compare two texts using both experiential and interpersonal meanings as your analytical tools.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Demonstrate an understanding of what is meant by a functional approach to English grammar, and in particular the functional approach taken by systemic functional grammarians.
• Use basic terminology (in terms of both traditional and systemic functional grammar) used by grammarians to describe grammatical phenomena.
• Analyse short texts in terms of their grammatical patterns.
• Discuss the role of language as it is used in a variety of social contexts.
• Communicate in academic writing the ways composers of either written or spoken texts use language choices and other text design strategies to target their chosen audience as well as meet their own needs in the communicative process.
Clause ID & Thematic analysis

Assessment Type 1: Qualitative analysis task
Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours
Due: Week 13 2/06/24
Weighting: 30%

This is an assessment that tests students' understanding of clause identification and Theme / Rheme analysis.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Demonstrate an understanding of what is meant by a functional approach to English grammar, and in particular the functional approach taken by systemic functional grammarians.
• Use basic terminology (in terms of both traditional and systemic functional grammar) used by grammarians to describe grammatical phenomena.
• Analyse short texts in terms of their grammatical patterns.
• Communicate in academic writing the ways composers of either written or spoken texts use language choices and other text design strategies to target their chosen audience as well as meet their own needs in the communicative process.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   • the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   • the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Lecture content will be delivered to you online via your ilearn site in the form of screencast videos (vlogs) with associated online activities which will be available through the LING1120 ilearn site. There are no face-to-face lectures because the unit has been designed to allow you maximum flexibility in organising your timetable. However, you must ensure you have watched the relevant lecture prior to attending your tutorial.

Tutorials are 1 hour and begin in Week 2. Most streams are available in face to face mode on campus and one will be available online via Zoom. Unless you have permission to change, you should attend the tutorial class you are registered in. Students should aim to attend at least 80% of these valuable classes because they really do help you to understand the material.

This unit runs over the full 13 weeks of Semester, however Week 13 will be used to summarise the work throughout the semester. Please note that the Semester break is a break from face to face teaching, not a vacation break, and we may set work to be done during those two weeks. Part B on Assessment 2 will be due in the semester break to allow you a little more time to complete.

Textbook

There is a set textbook: Butt, Fahey, Feez and Spinks, Using Functional Grammar: An explorer’s guide to English, Edition 3, published by Palgrave Macmillan. Please ensure you purchase a copy as early as possible because it is an invaluable resource for this unit. The university’s official textbook supplier is Booktopia https://www.booktopia.com.au/books-online/text-books/textbook-finder/cXC-p1.html?src=header however the book is currently very hard to get. Because of this I have permission from the authors to make scanned copies of the chapters available to you. I will be emailing these to you so please check your uni email on a regular basis.

Policies and Procedures

Macquarie University policies and procedures are accessible from Policy Central (https://policies.mq.edu.au). Students should be aware of the following policies in particular with regard to Learning and Teaching:

- Academic Appeals Policy
- Academic Integrity Policy
- Academic Progression Policy

When using the University’s IT, you must adhere to the Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy. The policy applies to all who connect to the MQ network including students.

Inclusion and Diversity
Social inclusion at Macquarie University is about giving everyone who has the potential to benefit from higher education the opportunity to study at university, participate in campus life and flourish in their chosen field. The University has made significant moves to promote an equitable, diverse and exciting campus community for the benefit of staff and students. It is your responsibility to contribute towards the development of an inclusive culture and practice in the areas of learning and teaching, research, and service orientation and delivery. As a member of the Macquarie University community, you must not discriminate against or harass others based on their sex, gender, race, marital status, carers' responsibilities, disability, sexual orientation, age, political conviction or religious belief. All staff and students are expected to display appropriate behaviour that is conducive to a healthy learning environment for everyone.

Professionalism
In the Faculty of Medicine, Health and Human Sciences, professionalism is a key capability embedded in all our courses.

As part of developing professionalism, students are expected to attend all small group interactive sessions including clinical, practical, laboratory, work-integrated learning (e.g., PACE placements), and team-based learning activities. Some learning activities are recorded (e.g., face-to-face lectures), however you are encouraged to avoid relying upon such material as they do not recreate the whole learning experience and technical issues can and do occur. As an adult learner, we respect your decision to choose how you engage with your learning, but we would remind you that the learning opportunities we create for you have been done so to enable your success, and that by not engaging you may impact your ability to successfully complete this unit. We equally expect that you show respect for the academic staff who have worked hard to develop meaningful activities and prioritise your learning by communicating with them in advance if you are unable to attend a small group interactive session.

Another dimension of professionalism is having respect for your peers. It is the right of every student to learn in an environment that is free of disruption and distraction. Please arrive to all learning activities on time, and if you are unavoidably detained, please join activity as quietly as possible to minimise disruption. Phones and other electronic devices that produce noise and other distractions must be turned off prior to entering class. Where your own device (e.g., laptop) is being used for class-related activities, you are asked to close down all other applications to avoid distraction to you and others. Please treat your fellow students with the utmost respect. If you are uncomfortable participating in any specific activity, please let the relevant academic know.
