Unit description

The overarching goal of this unit is to help students understand and apply contemporary theories of leadership to enhance their readiness and effectiveness as leaders. The unit emphasises personal development, with a key focus on making life choices and vision-creation aligned with one's values and strengths, so they can become the leaders they aspire to be. The unit also equips students with self-leadership knowledge to develop positive mindset, personal integrity, and resilience. Another focus relates to the development of leadership capability to manage a range of stakeholder interests, lead positive change, and deliver results using pro-social frameworks.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Evaluate contemporary theories about the nature and processes of leading.

ULO2: Analyse the differences between leading and managing

ULO3: Formulate a personal leadership development plan

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.
