Unit description

This unit focuses on the fundamentals of marketing in any organisation and how to create value for the customer offering.

Students learn how to understand the relationship between the organisation and the customer and how to develop strategies to create value. Students will learn the fundamental skills of marketing by applying these skills through practical workshops on a range of real-world case studies. Students will learn skills on how to present themselves and work in collaboration with others.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Understand fundamentals of marketing, concepts, frameworks and theories.

ULO2: Apply marketing concepts, frameworks and theories to a range of real world scenarios.

ULO3: Use a variety of tools to understand the customer, and create value through marketing efforts.

ULO4: Communicate marketing solutions to a range of scenarios in a collaborative environment.

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Assessment Tasks
