Unit description

Approaching the study of music through the broad topics of traditions, instruments, industries and technologies, this unit situates and explores music in a global context. Students investigate how musicians create, adapt and perform music in various cultural, historical and global contexts, including in Western classical and diverse modern traditions and forms. The unit will also have an emphasis on the diversity of such musical practices and traditions in various contexts. A range of themes will be covered, including ideas of improvisation/ composition, instrument structure/symbolism, the popularization of traditional practices, classical/folk/popular traditions, and the music of first nation peoples.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: reflect on and analyse music in a global context.

ULO2: analyse and articulate the processes through which music is constructed and circulated.

ULO3: evaluate the connections between a music culture and broader political, social and cultural contexts.

ULO4: identify the value of music in the lives of communities in different places around the world.

ULO5: engage creatively and ethically with musical cultures.

General Assessment Information

Written assessments should follow to use the APA 7th referencing style and should be submitted via Turnitin on iLearn by the due date/time shown. Please be mindful that you can only submit each task once. There will also be further assessment instructions for each task on iLearn; there will also be in-class discussions.

- Rubrics are used for all assessments and will be available on iLearn.
- Assessment standards in this unit align with the University's grade descriptors.
- A computer and Internet access are required. Music playback facility is also required.
- Please use the Library databases for your own research purposes and do not use Wikipedia as a reference.
- Performances are to be from memory. That is, no reading of lyrics or music.
- Due to copyright, no practical assessments may be recorded or posted to social media or any online platform.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special Consideration application. Special Consideration outcomes may result in a new question or topic.
