Delivery and Resources

MOLS8001 Unit structural outline

MOLS8001 is a unit of independent study. Students will be required to complete a broad literature review on a particular topic, and submit a draft of a manuscript in a format compatible to a peer-reviewed journal. There is no set timetable of activities for this offering, however, progress meetings will be scheduled during the semester.

Students will also be required to complete:

- A 10-min oral presentation of the key content and relevance of their review article.
- 5000 words review article (excluding bibliography)
- Submit 20 peer references selected from the article Reference Section. The selected references should explain the relevance of the paper to the subject, in no more than 200 words for each.

Workshop sessions will be held in weeks 2-5 in collaboration with the library. These sessions will be focussed on providing training to the students on how to effectively use the different databases and writing tools available to them from MQ and also use of some software programs to obtain, create and use figures in order to facilitate their completion of their different assessments.

In all cases, the requirements for a 10 credit point unit specify that it should be equivalent to a minimum of 150 hours of work for a student in a semester. The unit will be marked and graded. Students will receive a grade based on marking against a rubric which will be available on the unit iLearn site.

Methods of Communication

We will communicate with you via your university email and through announcements on iLearn. Queries to convenors can either be placed on the iLearn discussion board or sent to the unit convenor via the contact email on iLearn.

COVID Information

For the latest information on the University's response to COVID-19, please refer to the Coronavirus infection page on the Macquarie website: <https://www.mq.edu.au/about/coronavirus-faqs>. Remember to check this page regularly in case the information and requirements change during semester. If there are any changes to this unit in relation to COVID, these will be communicated via iLearn.

Unit Schedule

There are no strictly scheduled lectures associated with the unit. However focused workshop sessions will be held in weeks 2-5 in collaboration with the library with a face to face introduction scheduled in week 1. These sessions will be focussed on providing training to the students on how to effectively use the different databases and writing tools available to them from MQ and also use of some software programs to obtain, create and use figures in order to facilitate their completion of their different assessments.

These sessions will be scheduled based on the discussion and availability of majority of the cohort. In addition to these workshop sessions, regular meetings will be scheduled to review the progress made by each student.
