Unit description

Historically, the police, policing and law enforcement has been a localised function reflecting the customs, practices and traditions of an identifiable community, in this case Australia. The fact there are less than 10 policing organisations in the western world with more than 10,000 police (NSW Police Force being one) that police a population in the millions, is rare. Modern policing in Australia now addresses multiple crime types and government policy perspectives. This unit provides students with the opportunity to critically reflect upon the role of the police, how policing and law enforcement exist and how it is influenced by in social systems, legal systems, economic development, conflict and globalisation of crime. As part of that understanding, State based policing, national policing and their relationship to international policing and policy will be explored. All enrolment queries should be directed to Open Universities Australia (OUA): see www.open.edu.au

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Analyse the history and development of public and private organisations in the delivery of policing

ULO2: Examine the complexities of private/public sector safety and security relationships

ULO3: Critically evaluate the role and function of government in providing opportunities for the pluralisation in policing

ULO4: Evaluate the delivery of policing services in differing public settings

ULO5: Evaluate the delivery of policing in differing private settings

General Assessment Information

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Self reflection on 1 question, a current policing issue	10%	No	2024-08-04
Summary of podcast	25%	No	2024-08-25
AB on a specific contemporary social policing issue	25%	No	2024-09-15
What is the function of the police?	40%	No	2024-10-14

Self reflection on 1 question, a current policing issue

Assessment Type ¹: Reflective Writing

Indicative Time on Task ²: 6 hours

Due: 2024-08-04

Weighting: 10%

This is the first element of session scaffold assessment on a contemporary policing issue that students see as relevant to their community. It asks the students to think about the role of the police from their personal view and/or experience. It is structured intentionally that no research is required. It is solely based on a student's current understanding of contemporary policing.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse the history and development of public and private organisations in the delivery of policing
- Examine the complexities of private/public sector safety and security relationships
- Critically evaluate the role and function of government in providing opportunities for the pluralisation in policing

- Evaluate the delivery of policing services in differing public settings
- Evaluate the delivery of policing in differing private settings

Summary of podcast

Assessment Type ¹: Summary

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: 2024-08-25

Weighting: 25%

The podcast will challenge their existing notions of policing in society (or not policing society) given the host of social issues/problems faced by both the public and policing in trying to bring or keep social or private life order.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse the history and development of public and private organisations in the delivery of policing
- Examine the complexities of private/public sector safety and security relationships
- Critically evaluate the role and function of government in providing opportunities for the pluralisation in policing
- Evaluate the delivery of policing services in differing public settings

AB on a specific contemporary social policing issue

Assessment Type ¹: Annotated bibliography

Indicative Time on Task ²: 20 hours

Due: 2024-09-15

Weighting: 25%

This is the third scaffold element leading to the students final assessment, an assignment on a specific policing issue within society. The AB is precursor research necessary for their forthcoming assignment. The AB add academic rigour to their final paper. The AB will provide critical theoretical analysis with the social construct of policing. The AB will provide reasoned argument with the forthcoming structure of their final assessment, their assignment.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse the history and development of public and private organisations in the delivery of policing

- Examine the complexities of private/public sector safety and security relationships
- Critically evaluate the role and function of government in providing opportunities for the pluralisation in policing
- Evaluate the delivery of policing services in differing public settings
- Evaluate the delivery of policing in differing private settings

What is the function of the police?

Assessment Type ¹: Essay

Indicative Time on Task ²: 30 hours

Due: 2024-10-14

Weighting: 40%

Every assessment prior to this has honed the students' critical thinking to now deliver analysis on identified issues for their paper. Having identified a specific topic of interest to the student, they will now synthesise the session feedback, research and learning into their essay. Here students will be expected to produce an effective, critically engaged argument on the theoretical and praxis of contemporary policing.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Analyse the history and development of public and private organisations in the delivery of policing
- Examine the complexities of private/public sector safety and security relationships
- Critically evaluate the role and function of government in providing opportunities for the pluralisation in policing
- Evaluate the delivery of policing services in differing public settings
- Evaluate the delivery of policing in differing private settings

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

² Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Delivery and Resources

UNIT REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS

- You should spend an average of 12 hours per week on this unit. This includes listening to lectures prior to seminar or tutorial, reading weekly required materials as detailed in iLearn, participating in iLearn discussion forums and preparing assessments.
- Internal students are expected to attend all seminar or tutorial sessions, and external students are expected to make significant contributions to on-line activities.
- In most cases students are required to attempt and submit all major assessment tasks in order to pass the unit.

REQUIRED READINGS

- The citations for all the required readings for this unit are available to enrolled students through the unit iLearn site, and at Macquarie University's library site. Electronic copies of required readings may be accessed through the library or will be made available by other means.

TECHNOLOGY USED AND REQUIRED

- Computer and internet access are essential for this unit. Basic computer skills and skills in word processing are also a requirement.
- This unit has an online presence. Login is via: <https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/>
- Students are required to have regular access to a computer and the internet. Mobile devices alone are not sufficient.
- Information about IT used at Macquarie University is available at http://students.mq.edu.au/it_services/

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT TASKS

- All text-based assessment tasks are to be submitted, marked and returned electronically. This will only happen through the unit iLearn site.
- Assessment tasks must be submitted as a MS word document by the due date.
- Most assessment tasks will be subject to a 'Turnitin' review as an automatic part of the submission process.
- The granting of extensions is subject to the university's Special Consideration Policy. Extensions will not be granted by unit conveners or tutors, but must be lodged through Special Consideration: <https://students.mq.edu.au/study/my-study-program/specialconsideration>

LATE SUBMISSION OF ASSESSMENT TASKS Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of, 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-time-sensitive assessments (including essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings, etc.). Late submission of time-sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs, etc.) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

WORD LIMITS FOR ASSESSMENT TASKS Stated word limits include footnotes and footnoted references, but not bibliography or title page. Word limits can generally deviate by 10% either over or under the stated figure. If the number of words deviates from the limit by more than 10%, then penalties will apply. These penalties are 5% of the awarded mark for every 100 words deviation from the word limit. If a paper is 300 words over, for instance, it will lose $3 \times 5\% = 15\%$ of the total mark awarded for the assignment. This percentage is taken off the total mark, i.e. if a paper was graded at a credit (65%) and was 300 words over, it would be reduced by 15 marks to a pass (50%). The application of this penalty is at the discretion of the unit convenor.

REASSESSMENT OF ASSIGNMENTS DURING THE SEMESTER

- Macquarie University operates a Grade Appeal Policy in cases where students feel their work was graded inappropriately: <http://www.mq.edu.au/policy/docs/gradeappeal/policy.html>
- In accordance with the Grade Appeal Policy, individual works are not subject to regrading.

STAFF AVAILABILITY

- Department staff will endeavour to answer student enquiries in a timely manner. However, emails or iLearn messages will not be answered over the weekend or public holiday period.
- Students are encouraged to read the Unit Guide and look at instructions posted on the iLearn site before sending email requests to staff.

Policies and Procedures
