security environment

General Assessment Information

PENALTIES FOR LATE WORK

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Delivery and Resources

COURSE STRUCTURE

This course is taught with 1 two-hour lecture followed by 1 one-hour tutorial each week.

On-campus students are expected to attend all lectures and actively participate in all on-campus tutorials. External students are expected to listen to all lectures and actively participate in the online discussion forums. As an advanced undergraduate unit, student participation is paramount. Students are therefore expected to come to tutorials or participate in online discussion forums having done the readings and considered discussion topics.

Online Resources

You can log on to the iLearn and iTeach e-learning system. The unit outline, teaching aids, essential readings, and guidelines for the Briefing Paper, Research Essay will be posted on the unit websites. Students are responsible for checking the unit website regularly for relevant announcements, scheduled changes, and other information.
