Unit description

The field of Psychology is broad and varied; this unit is designed to provide you with the foundations of the discipline as well as professional practice in psychology, developing your psychological literacy. In this unit, you will learn about the fascinating field of psychological science, including what it means to be a professional psychologist, a psychological scientist, or someone who applies psychological knowledge to other areas. You will also learn what a psychology degree will teach you, including content and skills that you will develop throughout the degree, and how what you learn will make genuine improvements to your life. Post-degree careers and pathways will be discussed, and you will reflect on your own personal strengths, values, interests as they relate to psychology, including how you can use psychological science to make the world a better place.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain the importance of theory and research in psychological science and psychological practice, including the use of empirically-derived scientific evidence and scientific practice (Capability 1: Scientist).

ULO2: Apply the foundations of psychological science for positive impact on individuals and society, including within higher education, employment, and everyday life (Capability 2: Practitioner).

ULO3: Recognise the importance of applying psychology knowledge and skills in a manner that is reflexive, culturally appropriate, and sensitive to the diversity of individuals (Capability 3: Citizen).

ULO4: Demonstrate effective interpersonal skills and collaboration in teams by communicating effectively in a range of settings, including written and spoken methods, with individuals, groups, policy makers and/or the wider community (Capability 2: Practitioner).

ULO5: Describe and apply ethical knowledge and skills in the discipline and practice of psychology, including professional and research ethics (Capability 4: Professional).

General Assessment Information

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

All final grades are determined by a grading committee, in accordance with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded a final grade and a mark which must correspond to the grade descriptors specified in the Assessment Procedure (clause 128).

To pass this unit, you must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes, meet any ungraded requirements, and achieve a final mark of 50 or better.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn.

Late Submissions

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (OF THE TOTAL POSSIBLE MARK) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For example:

Number of days (hours) late	Total Possible Marks	Deduction	Raw mark	Final mark
1 day (1-24 hours)	100	5	75	70

2 days (24-48 hours)	100	10	75	65
3 days (48-72 hours)	100	15	75	60
7 days (144-168 hours)	100	35	75	40
>7 days (>168 hours)	100	-	75	0

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

No further submissions will be accepted after the marked assignments are returned and feedback is released to students.

Word count penalty: word count penalties vary in this unit according to the assessment. To understand more about how word count penalties apply for each of the assessments, please see iLearn.

Assessment Tasks

Name	Weighting	Hurdle	Due
Portfolio	50%	No	Weekly tasks, with final formal submission Week 13
Group presentation and written report	50%	No	Week 5 for individual report; Week 10 for group presentation

Portfolio

Assessment Type ¹: Portfolio Indicative Time on Task ²: 45 hours Due: Weekly tasks, with final formal submission Week 13 Weighting: 50%

You will engage in regular reflection and application of unit content to your personal life and professional goals, culminating in a personal and professional portfolio submission.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Explain the importance of theory and research in psychological science and psychological practice, including the use of empirically-derived scientific evidence and scientific practice (Capability 1: Scientist).
- Apply the foundations of psychological science for positive impact on individuals and society, including within higher education, employment, and everyday life (Capability 2: Practitioner).
