Unit description

Successful managers are great communicators. In this unit students will engage with methods of communication from managerial, organisational, and corporate points of view. Students will build their skill set to learn how to provide impactful feedback, to coach, mentor and network. Leaders and managers are required to motivate and inspire a broad range of stakeholders and a key to achieving this is to understand your audience. Whether playing the role of leader, liaison, interpreter, disseminator, advocate, or spokesperson, in this unit, students will be introduced to frameworks, tools and techniques they need to be successful.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Explain the types of communication skills required for a range of academic and professional audiences, settings and purposes.

ULO2: Apply communication skills across different settings, purposes, and audiences to effectively communicate in diverse professional environments, engage in collaborative projects, network with industry professionals, and adapt to the evolving communication demands of the modern workplace.
ULO3: Use appropriate language and structure to solve real-world management communication challenges.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern. For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to apply for Special Consideration.
