Unit description

This unit outlines the key roles that the government sector plays in a market-based economy. The unit discusses traditional public financial issues as well as emerging issues relating to public economics within a globalised economy. Students learn how public sector responsibilities interact with activities undertaken by the private sector and how they can reflect preferences of the society in which they operate. Topics may include taxation, public expenditure, public sector pricing, cost-benefit analysis and fiscal federalism. The unit also covers areas of research into a national's cultural assets, indigenous policy and political economy considerations.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Examine critical issues in the economics of the public sector.

ULO2: Review changing national and global government intervention issues, structures and policies.

ULO3: Explain the working of public policy issues in the wider democratic process.

ULO4: Analyse the roles of the public sector in a decentralised market economy.

ULO5: Evaluate the necessity and effects of government fiscal decisions and the consequent trade-offs in how they affect different groups in society.

General Assessment Information

Late submissions of assessments

Late Assessment Submission Penalty (written assessments)

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Delivery and Resources

Delivery and Resources

Prescribed textbook

Students are recommended to purchase the following textbook:

- Gruber, J, (2023) Public Finance and Public Policy (7th edition IE), Macmillan Higher Education.
- Abelson, P. (2018) Public Economics: Principles and Practice (4th edition), Open access: <https://appliedeconomics.com.au/>

Additional weekly readings and resources will be made available on the unit iLearn site during the session.

Technology used and required

The unit uses the learning management system (iLearn) that can be accessed via iLearn.mq.edu.au.

The iLearn site is also used to post important notices. You should check this regularly. The iLearn web page has the facility to allow peer to peer discussion and also allows students to put questions to the teaching staff.

Zoom will be used for all remote consultation sessions. More information about accessing your MQ student Zoom account can be found here

Learning and teaching activities

All internal students are expected to attend the weekly two-hour f2f sessions. The recordings of these sessions will be available on the iLearn unit page. Every week, an additional pre-recorded lecture will be made available. The Final Exam and the Quizzes will be conducted in person (Special consideration may apply for external students). The classes will consist of a mix of lecture material, tutorial questions and discussions (details to be provided on iLearn at the start of the Session). All recorded lectures and discussions will be available on iLearn-ECHO360. It is suggested that weekly lecture material be reviewed in advance of the lecture sessions.

Unit Schedule

Available on the iLearn unit page.
