Unit description
This unit adopts a technical and practical emphasis, and incorporates theory, published research on management accounting technologies, and ethical dimensions of management accounting to inform how management accounting operates within an organisation’s strategic control system. Using case studies students learn how to critically analyse, evaluate, and solve problems using management accounting technologies. Students learn how management accounting enables and hinders strategic control processes thus positioning students to enhance its role in accomplishing effective strategic control.

Important Academic Dates
Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.

ULO2: Employ management accounting technologies, to identify, analyse and solve strategic control problems in real-world organisations.

ULO3: Propose and justify changes to the use of management accounting to enhance its role in the strategic control of an organisation.

ULO4: Critically examine, discuss and reflect on ethical issues and challenges relating to strategic control in organisations.

General Assessment Information

Unless an application for Special Consideration has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day for a written assessment that is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of ‘0’ will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set as per assessment summary available in iLearn. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern. For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests, exams, performance assessments, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Participatory Tasks

Assessment Type 1: Participatory task
Indicative Time on Task 2: 20 hours
Due: Ongoing Weekly
Weighting: 45%

Participatory Tasks requires students to participate in a range of activities. The purpose of this assessment is for students to show, with evidence, that they are working progressively and continuously throughout the session, to achieve the unit’s learning outcomes and to monitor their own progress in this unit. Participatory tasks, that are weight-averaged include: Seminar Participation (15%): In-class discussions, reflective activities, and online discussion forums. Other Seminar Activities (30%): Case analysis, online workshops and lessons, and presentations.

On successful completion you will be able to:

• Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.

- Employ management accounting technologies, to identify, analyse and solve strategic control problems in real-world organisations.
- Propose and justify changes to the use of management accounting to enhance its role in the strategic control of an organisation.

Case Study / Case Analysis

Assessment Type 1: Case study/analysis
Indicative Time on Task 2: 30 hours
Due: Week 8 and 9
Weighting: 30%

The case study requires students to critically assess and discuss ethical dilemmas and construct solutions to problems using relevant ethical principles and ideas, supported by a real-world case scenario. The purpose of this assessment is to introduce students to the ethical dimensions of management accounting as it relates to strategic control and develop their ethical reasoning skills. For this case study assessment, students will complete: Two (2) graded online discussion forums in groups focused on ethical dilemmas, ethical reasoning, and evaluating feasible ethical actions, using a real-world case scenario. Three (3) individual multiple-choice, open-book, online quizzes focused on ethical principles and frameworks, applicable to real-world scenarios. Students work in groups and individually online on the case study.

On successful completion you will be able to:
- Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.
- Critically examine, discuss and reflect on ethical issues and challenges relating to strategic control in organisations.

Class Test

Assessment Type 1: Quiz/Test
Indicative Time on Task 2: 16 hours
Due: Week 6 Seminar
Weighting: 25%

A class test will be held during the session.
On successful completion you will be able to:

- Integrate and apply strategic control concepts and management accounting technologies to explain and evaluate the role of management accounting in strategic control in organisations.
- Employ management accounting technologies, to identify, analyse and solve strategic control problems in real-world organisations.

1 If you need help with your assignment, please contact:
   - the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
   - the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

2 Indicative time-on-task is an estimate of the time required for completion of the assessment task and is subject to individual variation

Delivery and Resources

Required Text: The required materials will be posted on the unit’s webpage at - http://learn.mq.edu.au. A list of these materials corresponding to each of the classes is provided on the website for this unit using the Library Reserve.

Unit Web Page:
- Course material is available on the learning management system (iLearn)
- The web page for this unit can be found at: https://learn.mq.edu.au/login/MQ/
- Students must please consult the web page frequently. You will find announcements, seminar notes, participatory tasks, grading rubrics, helpful resources and detailed information on assessments posted on the iLearn site.
- If you are unable to access the website because you are not aware of or have forgotten your username and password, please contact the IT Helpdesk. The IT Helpdesk will also be able to assist you with using iLearn. Please note that you may also refer to the help feature in iLearn.
- Please remember to log out when you have finished using iLearn. Failure to do so could result in unauthorised access to your iLearn account.
Technology required and used

Students are required to use information technology in this unit.

Students will need to use:

- Library databases to source academic research papers and other readings, which are accessed electronically;
- Multisearch (see Library website) to access the required readings for this unit;
- Microsoft Word for assessment tasks;
- Microsoft Power Point for Participatory Tasks when required;
- The Internet to support various Class Participation activities; and
- Electronic access to iLearn to download, among other things, the unit outline and required materials (e.g. readings, seminar activity guides and so forth) and to complete the on-line ethics modules.

Delivery

This course comprises seminars of 3 hours teaching per week held from weeks 1 to 13. As seminars are a critical learning experience in this unit, students must attend all seminars. A highly participatory teaching strategy with inclusive practice is adopted, where students can engage with their fellow students and the Unit Convener. Please note that students are not required to attend seminars in Weeks 7 and 8 because you will be doing the e-Ethics module online. Hence, the blended learning component workload accounts for a total of 6 (six) hours, that is three hours each for Week 7 and Week 8. Please see the Assessment Guide for the total student workload for ACCG8025.

The timetable for classes can be found on the University web site at: http://www.timetables.mq.edu.au/

Recommended Reading:

Recommended texts include, but are not limited to the following, and are available in the Macquarie Library. These texts may be useful as preliminary reading for the management accounting concepts and/or techniques discussed in the required materials:

Preparation for seminars It is essential that you prepare for each seminar by reading all materials and references carefully. This will include working through the weekly reading materials carefully, noting any issues which you might like to discuss in class and, of course, contributing to in-class discussions and overall ‘group learning’. You may download additional relevant class materials required each week from iLearn – login at https://ilearn.mq.edu.au/login/. These class materials will be placed on iLearn prior to class time. It is your responsibility to ensure that you access and have copies of relevant material prior to classes. You should allow time for thorough reading of all materials before each class.
