Unit description

This unit provides students the opportunity to conduct targeted research into a particular topic of concern that aligns with the interdisciplinary focus of the Discipline of Languages and Cultures. Working in collaboration with a staff member from the Discipline of Languages and Cultures, students will identify a debate or issue within the scholarship related to their own research interests and conduct a systematic and wide review of this literature with an aim to develop an innovative solution to the identified problem. Through this unit, students will learn fundamental skills in research communication and project development as well as reflect on their own research practices to build high level critical thinking and problem-solving skills.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Identify key issues in the academic literature and develop an innovative solution to this problem by deploying relevant methodologies and approaches

ULO2: Build skills in critical research work, including identifying relevant scholarly sources and placing them within a broader disciplinary or interdisciplinary context

ULO3: Manage a research relationship with a scholarly mentor

ULO4: Develop high level research communication skills

ULO5: Reflect on research practice to build critical thinking and problem-solving skills

General Assessment Information

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of, 0 (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11:55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

These are serious penalties that will substantially alter your final grade and even determine whether you pass or fail this unit. Please make every effort to submit your assignment by the due dates.

If you find you cannot submit your assignment on time, please apply for Special Consideration through AskMQ. Make sure you read Macquarie University's policy regarding Special Consideration requests before you apply:

<https://students.mq.edu.au/study/assessment-exams/special-consideration>
