Unit description

Introducing students to the radio broadcasting industry, this unit has a large practical component for radio and podcast. Its main aim is to enable students to produce creative and or journalistic work, including content suitable for broadcast on Sydney station, 2SER.

Students gain a broad understanding of program making and sound production media, with attention to public, commercial and community radio forms. The unit also introduces students to the rapidly expanding realm of podcasting and online radio.

The workshop component of the unit concentrates on techniques of recording and producing pre-recorded sound 'stories'. Through hands-on production classes in the radio lab, students learn to develop skills in interviewing, story construction and voice presentation, and learn to research, record, mix, and write for radio and podcast.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: apply critical and conceptual skills in radio research and production.

ULO2: demonstrate a range of communication and expression skills.

ULO3: integrate a range of operational, technical and media industry/journalistic skills related in particular to audio/radio production and program making.

ULO4: evaluate creative and professional media practice, with an emphasis on production of radio industry audio content.

ULO5: collaborate and plan strategically, and develop team skills to produce a range of creative and journalistic outputs.

General Assessment Information

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day an assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application.
