Unit description
This is an advanced legal research unit for Bachelor of Laws students intending to graduate with Honours. In this unit, students work under the close supervision of the academic convenor of the unit and their research supervisor to develop a 10,000 word thesis that addresses a contemporary legal problem. This unit requires advanced legal research skills, the ability to engage in self-directed research under supervision and superior legal writing ability. Students will learn to design research projects with rigorous research methodologies, to proffer good written analyses with sound argumentation, and to reflect on legal scholarship and on the law critically while conducted ethical research.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Independently undertake an advanced legal research project under the supervision of a legal academic ULO2: Execute a legal research methodology appropriate for the research plan
ULO3: Identify and apply the ethics of legal research scholarship to the execution of a research project
ULO4: Critically analyse complex legal problems by identifying, researching, evaluating and synthesising relevant factual, legal and policy issues
General Assessment Information

Information about each assessment item and the relevant rubrics are available on iLearn site.

Late Assessment Submission Penalty

_Thesis_: Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of ‘0’ (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

_Viva_: The above Special Consideration policy does not apply. If the student cannot conduct Viva on the prescribed date, they will have to submit a special consideration request. If the request is approved, the student will be offered another date to conduct a Viva.
