Unit description

Succession explores the law relating to the formation and construction of wills, the grant of probate and letters of administration, and the distribution of testate and intestate estates. Family provision, the administration of estates, and the interpretation of relevant succession statutes, principles and cases are explored in the unit. The role of the lawyer in advising the client on estate planning and the responsibilities of executors and administrators are considered. Public policy, legal history and philosophy are also considered in the exploration of the contemporary issues found in the theory and practice of succession law.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Describe and explain links between understandings of property and relationships in the context of succession law.

ULO2: Analyse case law on the Succession Act 2006 (NSW) and apply to the validity and interpretation of wills.

ULO3: Critically evaluate the law on family provision and apply family provision legislation to complex factual situations involving estate disputes.

ULO4: Advise on competing family claims dealing with testate estates, intestate estates and partial intestacy.

ULO5: Assess the various legal principles to give appropriate advice on wills.

General Assessment Information

- Submission - All assessments must be submitted electronically. Students should carefully check that they submit the correct file for an assessment, as re-submissions will not be accepted after the due date and time, including instances where students upload an incorrect file in error.
- Turnitin plagiarism detection software is used to check all written assessments.
- Word limits - Word limits are strictly applied. Work above the word limit will not be marked. Footnotes are to be used only for referencing.
- Referencing - Referencing must conform to the requirements set out in the Australian Guide to Legal Citation 4th edition.
- Late submission penalty policy - Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late submission penalty policy will apply to non-timed sensitive assessments (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc).
- Late submission of time-sensitive tasks - Late submission of time-sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.
- Special Consideration - Students should submit applications for Special Consideration electronically via connect.mq.edu.au, along with the supporting documentation. Before submitting their applications, students should refer to the Special Consideration Policy (link provided under 'Policies and Procedures' below). Please do not email to request an extension or email to seek the outcome of a lodged application via email. No information can be provide via email, all information will be provided via the Connect system.
