Unit description

In this unit, you will learn how to assess and quantify psychological phenomena. You will also learn advanced methods to conduct psychological research and gather empirical evidence to address new psychological questions, both academic and non-academic. This unit covers important principles of psychological measurement and assessment, including psychometric practices. You will gain a broad understanding of the range of qualitative and quantitative methods that are commonly used by practitioners, industry professionals, and researchers to answer their research questions.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate broad and coherent knowledge of psychological assessment and methods of research (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).

ULO2: Demonstrate research-informed self-directed pursuit of scholarly inquiry in methods of psychological measurement and research, including the conduct, analysis, and interpretation of quantitative and qualitative data and scientific evidence (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).

ULO3: Demonstrate effective application of psychological assessment and research for positive impact at a foundational level of competency (Capability 2: Practitioner).

ULO4: Apply psychology knowledge and skills of measurement and research methods, and ethical principles, in a manner that is reflexive, culturally appropriate, and sensitive to the diversity of individuals (Capability 3: Citizen).

ULO5: Showcase systems-thinking, adapt to uncertainty in a range of settings, including applying methods of research and measurement to complex contexts (Capability 3: Citizen).

General Assessment Information

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

All final grades are determined by a grading committee, in accordance with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded a final grade and a mark which must correspond to the grade descriptors specified in the Assessment Procedure (clause 128).

To pass this unit, you must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes, meet any ungraded requirements, and achieve a final mark of 50 or better.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn.

Late Submissions

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (OF THE TOTAL POSSIBLE MARK) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For example:

Number of days (hours) late	Total Possible Marks	Deduction	Raw mark	Final mark
1 day (1-24 hours)	100	5	75	70
2 days (24-48 hours)	100	10	75	65
3 days (48-72 hours)	100	15	75	60
7 days (144-168 hours)	100	35	75	40
>7 days (>168 hours)	100	-	75	0

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments/labs, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Final Examination	40%	No	University Examination Period
Online quizzes	0%	No	Various

Infographic

Assessment Type ¹: Poster

Indicative Time on Task ²: 15 hours

Due: 11.55pm, 25/05/2025

Weighting: 25%

Working in a group, you will design an infographic applying and communicating the outcomes of the research that formed the report assessment. You will also complete an executive narrative summary to accompany the infographic.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate effective application of psychological assessment and research for positive impact at a foundational level of competency (Capability 2: Practitioner).
- Apply psychology knowledge and skills of measurement and research methods, and ethical principles, in a manner that is reflexive, culturally appropriate, and sensitive to the diversity of individuals (Capability 3: Citizen).
- Showcase systems-thinking, adapt to uncertainty in a range of settings, including applying methods of research and measurement to complex contexts (Capability 3: Citizen).

Research Report

Assessment Type ¹: Report

Indicative Time on Task ²: 23 hours

Due: 11.55pm, 04/05/2025

Weighting: 35%

You will complete a psychology research report

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate research-informed self-directed pursuit of scholarly inquiry in methods of psychological measurement and research, including the conduct, analysis, and interpretation of quantitative and qualitative data and scientific evidence (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).
- Demonstrate effective application of psychological assessment and research for positive impact at a foundational level of competency (Capability 2: Practitioner).
- Apply psychology knowledge and skills of measurement and research methods, and ethical principles, in a manner that is reflexive, culturally appropriate, and sensitive to the diversity of individuals (Capability 3: Citizen).

Final Examination

Assessment Type ¹: Examination

Indicative Time on Task ²: 35 hours

Due: University Examination Period

Weighting: 40%

You will complete a summative final exam covering the unit's content under formal examination conditions.

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate broad and coherent knowledge of psychological assessment and methods of research (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).
- Demonstrate research-informed self-directed pursuit of scholarly inquiry in methods of psychological measurement and research, including the conduct, analysis, and interpretation of quantitative and qualitative data and scientific evidence (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).
- Demonstrate effective application of psychological assessment and research for positive impact at a foundational level of competency (Capability 2: Practitioner).
- Apply psychology knowledge and skills of measurement and research methods, and ethical principles, in a manner that is reflexive, culturally appropriate, and sensitive to the diversity of individuals (Capability 3: Citizen).

- Showcase systems-thinking, adapt to uncertainty in a range of settings, including applying methods of research and measurement to complex contexts (Capability 3: Citizen).

Online quizzes

Assessment Type ¹: Quiz/Test

Indicative Time on Task ²: 12 hours

Due: Various

Weighting: 0%

You will complete regular online quizzes to consolidate your understanding and application of unit content

On successful completion you will be able to:

- Demonstrate broad and coherent knowledge of psychological assessment and methods of research (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).
- Demonstrate research-informed self-directed pursuit of scholarly inquiry in methods of psychological measurement and research, including the conduct, analysis, and interpretation of quantitative and qualitative data and scientific evidence (Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).
- Demonstrate effective application of psychological assessment and research for positive impact at a foundational level of competency (Capability 2: Practitioner).

When using the University's IT, you must adhere to the Acceptable Use of IT Resources Policy. The policy applies to all who connect to the MQ network including students.

INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY

Social inclusion at Macquarie University is about giving everyone who has the potential to benefit from higher education the opportunity to study at university, participate in campus life and flourish in their chosen field. The University has made significant moves to promote an equitable, diverse and exciting campus community for the benefit of staff and students. It is your responsibility to contribute towards the development of an inclusive culture and practice in the areas of learning and teaching, research, and service orientation and delivery. As a member of the Macquarie University community, you must not discriminate against or harass others based on their sex, gender, race, marital status, carers' responsibilities, disability, sexual orientation, age, political conviction or religious belief. All staff and students are expected to display appropriate behaviour that is conducive to a healthy learning environment for everyone.

PROFESSIONALISM

In the Faculty of Medicine, Health and Human Sciences, professionalism is a key capability embedded in all our courses.

As part of developing professionalism, students are expected to attend all small group interactive sessions including clinical, practical, laboratory, work-integrated learning (e.g., PACE placements), and team-based learning activities. Some learning activities are recorded (e.g., face-to-face lectures), however you are encouraged to avoid relying upon such material as they do not recreate the whole learning experience and technical issues can and do occur. As an adult learner, we respect your decision to choose how you engage with your learning, but we would remind you that the learning opportunities we create for you have been done so to enable your success, and that by not engaging you may impact your ability to successfully complete this unit. We equally expect that you show respect for the academic staff who have worked hard to develop meaningful activities and prioritise your learning by communicating with them in advance if you are unable to attend a small group interactive session.

Another dimension of professionalism is having respect for your peers. It is the right of every student to learn in an environment that is free of disruption and distraction. Please arrive to all learning activities on time, and if you are unavoidably detained, please join activity as quietly as possible to minimise disruption. Phones and other electronic devices that produce noise and other distractions must be turned off prior to entering class. Where your own device (e.g., laptop) is being used for class-related activities, you are asked to close down all other applications to avoid distraction to you and others. Please treat your fellow students with the utmost respect. If you are uncomfortable participating in any specific activity, please let the relevant academic know.
