Unit description

This unit introduces concepts of investment analysis and their practical application. With an international approach, the unit covers fundamentals in asset classes and financial trading, portfolio theory and practices, equilibrium in capital markets including modern asset pricing models and behavioural finance, fixed-income securities, and security analysis and selection.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate an integrated understanding of modern investment theories and practices.

ULO2: Illustrate the theory and empirical applications of modern portfolio theory and asset pricing models.

ULO3: Construct optimal portfolios applying the principles of modern portfolio theory.

ULO4: Conduct independent research to explore different investment strategies and solutions, addressing emerging challenges and opportunities.

General Assessment Information

Late submissions of assessments

Sometimes unavoidable circumstances occur that might prevent you from submitting an assessment on time and, in that case, you may be eligible to lodge a Special Consideration request.

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, please note that no extensions to assessment deadlines will be granted. Assessments that are submitted late will attract a late penalty:

1. There will be a deduction of 5% of the total available marks for each 24 hour period or part thereof that the submission is late.
2. No assessment will be accepted more than 7 calendar days after the original due date and time (incl. weekends).

Delivery and Resources

Required Text: It is essential to have the unit textbook. The textbook for the unit is Bodie, Z., Kane, A. and Marcus, A.J. (2024), Investments, 13th edition, McGraw-Hill (denoted BKM on the reading list). The e-textbook can be accessed online from here. Textbook material will be supplemented by articles and handouts. Chapters from the textbook and specified articles should be read prior to attending the scheduled lecture on that topic.

Unit Web Page: Important handouts can be downloaded from the unit's iLearn site. iLearn (<https://ilearn.mq.edu.au>) provides the main online learning support. It is essential that you log in regularly to keep abreast of unit-wide announcements and use the resources to supplement your learning. Lecture slides are available by before each lecture for you to download from iLearn. Solutions to homework problems are made available online after the problems are discussed in class.

Delivery Format and Other Details: Students are required to enrol in one three-hour class per week and to attend the class in which they are enrolled. See details from the timetable. Classes will typically consist of a two-hour lecture plus a one-hour tutorial. Lectures are used to set the scene and show how the topic fits into the overall unit of study aims. You will be expected to have read the required reading before that week's class. Tutorials are essential for helping address any misunderstandings and to apply concepts to more difficult problems. Participation is strongly encouraged so students can check their understanding of concepts. Students should be prepared to present their homework solutions in the tutorials and/or to discuss the related conceptual issues.

Other Course Materials: Homework will be assigned at the end of lectures and these should be completed before coming to the following week's tutorial where students get to discuss their homework solutions.
