Unit description

This unit provides extended formal academic support to students concurrently enrolled in the Ethics and Governance unit of the CPA program. This unit deals with core professional capabilities that must be possessed by all accountants. It explores and analyses the roles and functions of the accounting profession and its impact on and interface with society at large. It considers in detail a wide variety of issues including general theories of ethics and also the nature and application of the mandatory accounting professional ethical framework. The unit explores a range of governance issues that must be understood by accountants, including corporate social responsibility, corporate law and competition and consumer law. 'Corporate social responsibility' aspects are wide-ranging and include environmental and social reporting and intergenerational concerns. Students' skills are extended with a focus on both developing practical problem solving capabilities and effective communication in complex managerial and related circumstances.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>
