Unit description

In this unit, completed within Psychology Honours, you will pursue advanced study within a specific subdiscipline of psychology. Building on foundational Psychology content covered in the undergraduate Psychology degree, you will have the opportunity to select topics of specialisation of Psychology to pursue in depth. You will engage in critically evaluation of the underlying principles and theories and concepts in the field, as well apply this knowledge to a range of domains and contexts.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Demonstrate coherent knowledge and critical evaluation of the underlying principles, theories and concepts, and skills in advanced topics in psychology (CLO1 and Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar).

ULO2: Synthesise and explain how psychological theories and principles can apply across a range of domains and contexts (CLO2 and Capability 1: Scientist and Scholar)

ULO3: Communicate advanced psychological content effectively in both written and oral modes (CLO3 and Capability 2: Practitioner).

General Assessment Information

Grade descriptors and other information concerning grading are contained in the Macquarie University Assessment Policy.

All final grades are determined by a grading committee, in accordance with the Macquarie University Assessment Policy, and are not the sole responsibility of the Unit Convenor.

Students will be awarded a final grade and a mark which must correspond to the grade descriptors specified in the Assessment Procedure (clause 128).

To pass this unit, you must demonstrate sufficient evidence of achievement of the learning outcomes, meet any ungraded requirements, and achieve a final mark of 50 or better.

Further details for each assessment task will be available on iLearn.

Late Submissions

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (OF THE TOTAL POSSIBLE MARK) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a grade of '0' will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical concern.

For example:

| Number of days (hours) late | Total Possible Marks | Deduction | Raw mark | Final mark |
|-----------------------------|----------------------|-----------|----------|------------|
| 1 day (1-24 hours)          | 100                  | 5         | 75       | 70         |
| 2 days (24-48 hours)        | 100                  | 10        | 75       | 65         |
| 3 days (48-72 hours)        | 100                  | 15        | 75       | 60         |
| 7 days (144-168 hours)      | 100                  | 35        | 75       | 40         |
| >7 days (>168 hours)        | 100                  | -         | 75       | 0          |

For any late submissions of time-sensitive tasks, such as scheduled exams, performance assessments/presentations, and/or scheduled practical assessments, students need to submit an application for Special Consideration.

Viva/Oral examination information

The viva for this unit is currently scheduled to occur on Macquarie University campus. The Unit Convenor will allocate all students to a specific examination period within the first two weeks of the term. Students are expected to make themselves available per the Assessment Policy and Procedure. Please refer to the unit iLearn page for details.

If a student misses the exam due to illness or other unavoidable circumstances they can sit a supplementary exam. Students who are unable to sit an examination must submit an Application for Special Consideration form (supporting documentation from a medical or health care professional clearly stating the reasons for the absence from the exam must be attached to your submission). The only exception to not sitting an examination at the designated time is because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption.

If a Supplementary Examination is granted as a result of the Special Consideration process, the examination will usually be held one week after the original examination date. Supplementary Exams are only offered to students who have satisfactorily completed all other assessments for the unit and were unable to sit the exam because of documented illness or unavoidable disruption.

You are advised that it is Macquarie University's policy that all students are expected to ensure that they are available until the end of the teaching semester, which is the final day of the official examination period.

Illness or Significant Disruption to Assessments

In the event of illness or significant disruptions during an examination or timed assessment, students must promptly cease their work. If the incident occurs in a classroom setting, they must inform the supervisor or invigilator immediately. If the disruption takes place outside the classroom, it should be reported immediately to the appropriate course authority. Subsequently, students are required to submit an application for special consideration.

Students who have already submitted an assessment or participated in an examination or timed assessment without reporting any issues during the assessment process will only be considered for a second opportunity to undertake that assessment only under exceptional circumstances. The decision to grant a second opportunity will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis, with careful consideration given to the nature and validity of the exceptional circumstances that significantly affected their performance in the initial assessment. A statement of fact cannot suffice as evidence in such cases.

Assessment Tasks

| Name  | Weighting | Hurdle | Due                  |
|---|-----------|--------|----------------------|

INCLUSION & DIVERSITY

Social inclusion at Macquarie University is about giving everyone who has the potential to benefit from higher education the opportunity to study at university, participate in campus life and flourish in their chosen field. The University has made significant moves to promote an equitable, diverse and exciting campus community for the benefit of staff and students. It is your responsibility to contribute towards the development of an inclusive culture and practice in the areas of learning and teaching, research, and service orientation and delivery. As a member of the Macquarie University community, you must not discriminate against or harass others based on their sex, gender, race, marital status, carers' responsibilities, disability, sexual orientation, age, political conviction or religious belief. All staff and students are expected to display appropriate behaviour that is conducive to a healthy learning environment for everyone.

PROFESSIONALISM

In the Faculty of Medicine, Health and Human Sciences, professionalism is a key capability embedded in all our courses.

As part of developing professionalism, students are expected to attend all small group interactive sessions including clinical, practical, laboratory, work-integrated learning (e.g., PACE placements), and team-based learning activities. Some learning activities are recorded (e.g., face-to-face lectures), however, you are encouraged to avoid relying upon such material as they do not recreate the whole learning experience and technical issues can and do occur. As an adult learner, we respect your decision to choose how you engage with your learning, but we would remind you that the learning opportunities we create for you have been done so to enable your success and that by not engaging you may impact your ability to successfully complete this unit. We equally expect that you show respect for the academic staff who have worked hard to develop meaningful activities and prioritise your learning by communicating with them in advance if you are unable to attend a small group interactive session.

Another dimension of professionalism is having respect for your peers. It is the right of every student to learn in an environment that is free of disruption and distraction. Please arrive to all learning activities on time, and if you are unavoidably detained, please join the activity as quietly as possible to minimise disruption. Phones and other electronic devices that produce noise and other distractions must be turned off prior to entering class. Where your own device (e.g., laptop) is being used for class-related activities, you are asked to close down all other applications to avoid distraction to you and others. Please treat your fellow students with the utmost respect. If you are uncomfortable participating in any specific activity, please let the relevant academic know.
