Unit description

Understanding ancient languages is fundamental to our understanding of ancient cultures. In this unit students will undertake studies in an ancient language relevant to their field of interest. The unit provides students with fundamental introductory knowledge and understanding of ancient language - its phonetic structure, grammar, and vocabulary. Students will learn to integrate the knowledge of the grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing texts in the ancient language at the appropriate level, and explore the significance of the ancient language for the study of relevant ancient cultures.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at <https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates>

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: Recognise and recall the script and phonetic structure of the ancient language.

ULO2: Identify and recall the grammatical structures of the ancient language at the appropriate level.

ULO3: Recognise and memorize the vocabulary of the ancient language at the appropriate level.

ULO4: Assess the grammar required for the translation of the texts in the ancient language at the appropriate level.

ULO5: Integrate the knowledge of the grammar and vocabulary in reading and/or writing texts in the ancient language at the appropriate level.

ULO6: Explore the significance of the ancient language for research in the relevant ancient culture.

General Assessment Information

The unit's ilearn has submission links set for each of the different language options. You will have access to the links for your language option when you have selected that language (see the ilearn for more details). Some of the assessment tasks may be broken down into smaller parts due on different dates (eg. the translation exercises).

Late Assessment Submission Penalty [Macquarie University Policy]

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue. This late penalty will apply to non-timed sensitive assessment (incl essays, reports, posters, portfolios, journals, recordings etc). Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/ exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs etc) will only be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special consideration application. Special Consideration outcome may result in a new question or topic.

Delivery and Resources

These are the language options for Session 1, Online-flexible 2025.

With no prior language study:

Ancient Greek A

Hieroglyphic Egyptian A

Latin A

With relevant prior language study:

Higher level options in Ancient Greek, Latin and Hieroglyphic Egyptian may be available. Please contact the unit convenor if you have relevant prior language knowledge and want to discuss the possibility of studying one of these languages at a higher level.

The unit may be taken in session 2 instead of session 1, when other language options will be offered (ie. the 'B' units in Ancient Greek, Latin and Hieroglyphic Egyptian). This unit is typically taken in session 2 by students who wish to take a 'B' unit in a language for which they have already completed the 'A' unit through AHIX6100. The unit is taken in session 1 by students who wish to take a second 'A' level language unit.

Your choice of language option is made in the unit's ilearn. Contact the unit convenor for more information.
