Unit description

This is an interdisciplinary unit aimed at students interested in technologically mediated audio/ visual performance practices and introduces a modular toolkit for sound, graphics, and interactivity. Classes are practice-led, immersive and hands-on, offering students both a grounding in theoretical/conceptual approaches and practical instruction with one-on-one assistance for individual and collaborative interactive media performance projects.

Important Academic Dates

Information about important academic dates including deadlines for withdrawing from units are available at https://www.mq.edu.au/study/calendar-of-dates

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

ULO1: analyse how digital audio and visual media are represented, manipulated and controlled through software.

ULO2: apply problem solving and technological skills, and design principles to realtime audio and visual creative works.

ULO3: apply programming principles to the manipulation of audiovisual media and time-based creative works.

ULO4: demonstrate information and technological literacies with contemporary computer-based audiovisual performance practices.

General Assessment Information

All work must be digitally submitted to iLearn. Assessment submission guidelines are available in iLearn and will be outlined in classes.

Any files that are not original to your submission must be appropriately attributed or referenced as you would do formal written work. Submission of work that is primarily copied from resources outside of content provided in the unit is subject to the same Academic Integrity Policy as written works.

Assessment marks are aligned with the university's grade descriptors.

Special Consideration

If you experience serious and unavoidable difficulties when assessment tasks are due, you can consider applying for Special Consideration. Please read the information available here and, if you are eligible, apply via Service Connect.

Late Penalty

Unless a Special Consideration request has been submitted and approved, a 5% penalty (of the total possible mark) will be applied each day a written assessment is not submitted, up until the 7th day (including weekends). After the 7th day, a mark of '0' (zero) will be awarded even if the assessment is submitted. Submission time for all written assessments is set at 11.55pm. A 1-hour grace period is provided to students who experience a technical issue.

This late penalty will apply to written reports and recordings only. Late submission of time sensitive tasks (such as tests/exams, performance assessments/presentations, scheduled practical assessments/labs will be addressed by the unit convenor in a Special Consideration application.

audiovisual performance practices.

- the academic teaching staff in your unit for guidance in understanding or completing this type of assessment
- the Writing Centre for academic skills support.

Delivery and Resources

As MMCC8097 is an interactive, practice-based unit, students are expected to attend both hours of practical workshops/seminars which introduce new concepts each week and offer a space for students to put theory into practice through active learning exercises. Workshops are designed to offer students practice-based learning with realtime support, and content delivered in class will not be repeated by other means such as via email or one-on-one consultation.

General computer literacy skills are assumed (creating files/folders, copying files, etc).

Students are required to bring headphones to class each week. Students are encouraged to backup their work between classes, using appropriate cloud services, USB sticks, or portable Hard Drives (not formatted as NTFS).
